A Poet's Journal Giōrgos Sepherēs,1974 Days of 1945-1951 George Seferis,1974 In 1967 George Seferis decided the time had finally come to publish at least a portion of his journals As he was preparing his manuscript for the printer however the political climate in Greece became increasingly unpropitious for such an undertaking Soon he did not feel free to publish in his own country and in those ominous days there were even some fears for the safety of his unpublished manuscripts Shortly before his death on September 20 1971 he entrusted a copy of the journal to his friend Athan Anagnostopoulos with the request that he translate it publish it and that Walter Kaiser write the introduction for American readers Poet's Journal: Days of 1945-1951 George Seferis,1974 Days of 1945-1951 George Sepherēs,1974 A poet's journal Giōrgos Sepherēs,1974 Days of 1945-1951 George Seferis,1975 A Poet's Journal, Days of 1945-51 G. similarities than differences all revere mountains as a source of inspiration and holiness all feel a spiritual connection to the soil itself all create art and literature to celebrate their connection to the land and all see themselves as inextricable from the land they call home This unique volume explores how human beings across the planet and across time have felt about the earth and nature and how they have understood it related to it and celebrated it in their literature mythology religion and art It demonstrates that no matter where on the planet we exist and no matter what time period we live we all have a profound connection to the earth from Book Jacket
