Hay      An Exploration of a New Poetic Expression Beyond Dichotomy Shin'ichiro Ishikawa,2004 This study attempts to re evaluate Lawrence s poetry which has often been read as a set of biographical documents or supplementary notes to his novels as fully independent literary work in the light of post modern critical theory The author carefully examines how Lawrence needed to misread his precursors the nineteenth century Romantics to establish himself as one of the modern poets What separates his poetry from his precursors is his self consciousness as a modern poet His search for radical freedom in language and his meta poetic exploration of a new poetic expression make him a true pioneer of the terra incognita in English poetry      D.H. Lawrence Harold Bloom,2001 Presents a brief biography of author D H Lawrence and features a plot summary list of characters and selection of critical views for each of five short stories including The Prussian Officer The Fox The Captain s Doll St Mawr and The Rocking Horse Winner      D.H. Lawrence - The Rainbow/Women in Love Richard Beynon,1997-09-01 In this Readers Guide Richard Beynon explores some of the most significant critical material to have been written about these novels since their publication in 1915 and 1920 The book provides readers with a clear introduction to Lawrence's place in literary studies and offers a comprehensive account of the many shifts of critical opinion that have affected his literary reputation. Beginning with the early reviews and critical responses to the novels, the Guide moves on to consider Lawrence's declining reputation during the thirties and forties followed by the so-called Lawrence Revival of the Fifties with critical material reproduced from some outstanding studies of the decade. The enormous growth of interest in Lawrence during the Sixties is reflected in essays and extracts that tackle some of the central critical questions raised by the novels. The final chapters discuss the radical reevaluation of the novels in the light of feminist criticism in the Seventies and leave the reader with a sense of the postmodern Lawrence of the late Eighties and early Nineties.

Rhetoric Of The Unselfconscious In D H L Masami Nakabayashi, 2011-10-10. In this study of the Lady Chatterley novels, Masami Nakabayashi pays particular attention to D. H. Lawrence's language for the feelings and for the life of the unselfconscious sexual body. The novels constantly find ways of verbalising the characters' internalised experiences as they occur in states of unselfconsciousness. Lawrence's language for sensual feelings and emotions has always been regarded as simply sexual and no previous critics have explored or made sense of the complexities of his peculiar but extremely sophisticated writing practice in the Lady Chatterley novels. Lawrence was a habitual reviser of his work and despite the availability of reliable texts in the Cambridge edition, few critics have traced the nature and significance of his changes from one draft to the next. By examining and analysing the novels' particular linguistic revisions, Masami Nakabayashi reveals the textual impulse behind Lawrence's original conception and its subsequent change and development.

The Longman Anthology of British Literature David Damrosch, 1999. Volume 2C: 20th Century of 6 volume splits of parent volumes.
