A Renaissance Alphabet Giovanni Francesco Cresci, 1971      The Handwriting of the Renaissance Samuel Aaron Tannenbaum, 1967      The Dramatization of the Alphabet in the Renaissance Erika Mary Boeckeler, 2006 In foregrounding the often unacknowledged importance of alphabetic issues and references I suggest fresh realms of inquiry into alphabet phenomena within Renaissance studies that are also applicable to subsequent eras The crucial contributions of the alphabet to all of intellectual and social history begin to take definition through an appraisal of diverse letter related phenomena within the various genres of imaginative political and educational literature and among the fine arts With this interdisciplinary and comparative project I seek ultimately to articulate a philosophy of the alphabet      The handwriting of the renaissance: being the development and characteristics of the script of Shakespeare's time Samuel Aaron Tannenbaum, 1931      The Handwriting of the Renaissance Samuel Aaron Tannenbaum, 1930      Book of Medieval & Renaissance Alphabets, 1991 Seventy five of the most beautifully inventive alphabets from the Medieval and Renaissance periods have been culled from some of the greatest collections in the world including the British Library and the Biblioth que Nationale in Paris And best of all every one of these priceless alphabets can be scanned into a computer and is completely free from any copyright or licensing restrictions Created in the 8th to the 17th century these upper and lower case alphabets reflect the ancient art of calligraphy and include such inspired hand craftsmanship as Albrecht Durer's engraved 1553 Prayer Book letters And as an additional feature there is a varied selection of period numerals monograms and initials It is an invaluable reference for typographers graphic designers and those who dabble in graphic elements as well as an incredible source of inspiration from some of history's greatest illumination artists Back cover      A Renaissance Alphabet Giovanni Francesco Cresci, 1971      Catalog of Printed Books of the Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, D. C. : First Supplement Folger Shakespeare Library, 1976      Barbarous Antiquity Miriam Jacobson, 2014-08-25 In the late sixteenth century English merchants and diplomats ventured into the eastern Mediterranean to trade directly with the Turks the keepers of an important emerging empire in the Western Hemisphere and these initial exchanges had a profound effect on English literature While the theater investigated representations of religious and ethnic identity in its portrayals of Turks and Muslims poetry Miriam Jacobson argues explored East West exchanges primarily through language and the material text Just as English markets were flooded with exotic goods so was the English language awash in freshly imported words describing items such as sugar jewels plants spices paints and dyes as well as technological advancements such as the use of Arabic numerals in arithmetic and the concept of zero Even as these Eastern words and imports found their way into English poetry poets wrestled with paying homage to classical authors and styles In Barbarous Antiquity Jacobson reveals how poems adapted from Latin or Greek sources and set in the ancient classical world were now reoriented to reflect a contemporary mercantile Ottoman landscape As Renaissance English writers including Shakespeare Jonson Marlowe and Chapman weighed their reliance on classical poetic models against contemporary cultural exchanges a new form of poetry developed positioned at the crossroads of East and West ancient and modern Building each chapter around the intersection of an Eastern import and a classical model Jacobson shows how Renaissance English poetry not only reconstructed the classical past but offered a critique of that very enterprise with a new set of words and metaphors imported from the East Letters & Lettering Frank Chouteau Brown,1918 Scribner's Monthly, an Illustrated Magazine for the People ,1921 Cyclopedia of Architecture, Carpentry and Building American School (Lansing, Ill.),1907 Modern Engineering Practice American School (Chicago, Ill.),1906 Cyclopedia of Drawing: Mechanical, architectural, pen and ink rendering, lettering ,1906 Cyclopedia of Architecture: Architectural drawing.
