A Return To Yesterday:

The Making of Yesterday's Enterprise Eric A. Stillwell, 2008 Yesterday's Enterprise consistently ranks as one of the all time fan favorite episodes of the Star Trek The Next Generation television series Stillwell chronicles the behind the scenes of this acclaimed episode from its inception to the final product and beyond

Portraits from Life Jerome Boyd Maunsell, 2018-01-05 What happens when novelists write about their own lives directly in memoirs and autobiographies rather than in novels How do they present themselves and what do their self portraits reveal In a series of biographical case studies Portraits from Life examines how seven canonical Modernist writers Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford Henry James Wyndham Lewis Gertrude Stein H G Wells and Edith Wharton depicted themselves in their memoirs and autobiographies during the first half of the twentieth century Drawing on a range of life writing sources in this innovative group portrait Jerome Boyd Maunsell reconstructs the periods during which these authors worked on their memoirs often towards the end of their lives and shows how memoirs and autobiographies are just as artful as novels The seven portraits in the book also create a rich network of encounters as many of these writers knew each other and wrote about each other in their reminiscences Portraits from Life investigates the difficulties and possibilities of autobiography the relation of fact and fiction biography and autobiography the ethical issues of dealing with real people the thin generic lines between novels and autobiographies and the deceptive workings of memory and how all these writers dealt with these concerns as they looked back on their lives An act of portraiture and biography as well as an act of criticism moving from London to Paris and through two world wars it also pieces together a fresh and constantly inter connecting narrative of the Modernist era in England and France

The World of Yesterday's Humanist Today Marion Sonnenfeld, 1984-06-30 Fifty years ago Stefan Zweig who committed suicide in 1942 was the most widely read and translated living writer in the world Zweig's Vienna was a world of bright brittle superficialities in which the bourgeoisie gradually elevated the eternal business of seeing and being seen to the purpose of the existence To break through the facades of this society Zweig developed a remarkable literary and psychological method In The World of Yesterday's Humanist Today thirty scholars of history literature and music share their studies of Zweig and their insight into his works

The Bodley Head Ford Madox Ford: Memories and impressions Ford Madox Ford, 1971 Parade's end Christopher Tietjens is the embodiment of an Edwardian English gentleman his world is ordered predictable and hierarchical His wife Sylvia beautiful arrogant reckless is a symbol of the new times brought about by World War I Their conflict is a chronicle of a family and an era

Perseverance of Yesterday's Women Dragana Djurdjev, 2018-01-29 Ms Djurdjev wrote her book to give support and encouragement to those who unwillingly relinquished their talents and journey to someone else To those who see themselves in her story she sends ideas and encouragement and perhaps the sense of urgency for them to call upon their courage create a plan and reclaim their journey through life She reminds us that there are no do overs in life it is obligatory to seek joy while living it While in leadership roles Ms Djurdjev realized like her others have a need for ideas and guidance to find ways to reclaim their talents which would enable them to create their own special journey through life

The World of Yesterday's Humanist Today Stefan Zweig Symposium (1981: Fredonia, N.Y.),1983-01-01 France 1837 was the third volume published in Cooper s Gleanings in Europe series but first in the chronology of his European experience Less sequential than his other travel narratives France distills his impressions of French and European culture during his first two years abroad Exhibiting many qualities of the familiar essay it considers a wide range of topics of interest to Cooper his friends and potential readers in the United States As a celebrity thoroughly at home in the brilliant society of Bourbon Paris Cooper was able to provide fascinating glimpses of personalities spectacles institutions and manners from his distinctly American perspective Indeed as Professor Philbrick remarks No other of Cooper s works perhaps brings us closer to his speaking voice or puts us more directly in contact with the man himself with all his idiosyncratic preoccupations his quick resentments his restless curiosity his surprising humor and his nobility of principle The reader of this edition is brought even closer to Cooper in the draft of a hitherto unpublished letter probably intended for this book which illustrates Cooper s grasp of the still finer points of French customs and attitudes
