Sidney Theodore Felstead

A Search For Scotland:

The Politicization of Police Stops in Europe Jacques de Maillard, Kristof Verfaillie, Mike Rowe, 2024-03-11 This book examines the timely issue of police stops as a public and political issue focussing on the European states Contrary to much other work it focuses on wider Europe and the social and political context in which the police practice of stopping citizens emerges develops and can be curtailed More specifically the volume analyses public controversies about police stops i e events in which conflicts emerge about how the performance of police stops is explained and justified This book stems from an EU COST Action research network on Police Stops which engages academics and practitioners from 29 countries It appeals to those in law criminology and policing studies with some potential for wider interest in cultural studies history and public policy politics as well as to practitioners in police scrutiny oversight and other professional bodies and in training organisations

A Search for Scotland R. F. Mackenzie, 1991

A Search for Scotland Robert Fraser Mackenzie, 1989

Enhancing Police Service Delivery James F. Albrecht, Garth den Heyer, 2021-02-16 Contemporary police service delivery and performance are complex phenomena Law enforcement particularly at the local level must therefore face the additional challenges of globalization cybercrime counter terrorism and calls for reform at a time when extreme budgetary constraints are being implemented Policing operations encompass multiple critical tasks and responsibilities not routinely measured and evaluated such as response to incidents involving medical assistance homelessness mental illness community engagement and neighborhood problem solving endeavors This volume aims to provide government criminal justice and policing administrators policy makers and criminal justice scholars and researchers with comprehensive analyses of the critical issues impacting the challenges inherent in providing effectual public safety security and service all from a global perspective It takes into account popular criticism extreme budgetary constraints and the relatively novel and overwhelming challenges of terrorism and cybercrime The book merges study and practice to identify avenues to best serve community interests ensure organizational success and enhance public confidence in policing and in rule of law

Drug Law Enforcement, Policing and Harm Reduction Matthew Bacon, Jack Spicer, 2022-12-30 The policing of drugs is an intriguing complex and contentious domain that brings into sharp focus the multifaceted nature of the police role and has farreaching consequences for health crime and justice While research on drugs policing has historically been surprisingly sparse fragmented and underdeveloped the field has recently become a burgeoning area of academic study influenced by contemporary trends in policing practices changes in drug policy and wider social movements This book makes a much needed interdisciplinary and international contribution that engages with established and emerging areas of scholarship advances cutting edge debates and sets an agenda for future directions in drugs policing Drug Law Enforcement Policing and Harm Reduction is the first edited collection to devote its attention exclusively to drugs policing It brings together a range of leading scholars to provide a deep and thorough account of the current state of knowledge In addition to academic analysis authors also include serving police officers and policymakers who have influenced how drugs policing is framed and carried out Together the contributors draw on a diverse set of empirical studies and theoretical perspectives with the thread running throughout the book being the concept of harm reduction policing With accounts from various countries localities and contexts topics covered include the in effectiveness and un intended consequences of the war on drugs attempts to reform drugs policing and the role of partnerships and policy networks The broader theme of inequality lies at the heart of this collection An accessible and compelling read this book will be of interest to academics and students of criminology public health and social policy especially those researching policing drug policy and harm reduction It also offers valuable insights and practical guidance for professionals working in the drugs field

Governing Police Stops Across Europe Elizabeth Aston,Sofie De Kimpe,János Fazekas,Genevieve Lennon,Mike Rowe,2023-11-17 This book takes a critical and comparative approach to the analysis of the governance of police stops across Europe It draws on an EU COST Action research network on Police Stops which engaged academics and practitioners from 29 countries to better understand the practice of police stops It begins by examining how police stops are defined and the various legal rules and levels of accountability afforded The chapters are arranged by theme to focus on a core aspect of the governance of police stops These include legal frameworks and police discretion internal governance external accountability and civilian oversight possibilities for legal recourse and the different roles of data and technology Each compares the distinct approaches evident across Europe often employing case studies The book adopts a critical approach acknowledging governance as contested and involving diverse state non state and supranational actors It considers implications for policing in a rapidly changing environment globally

The Rise of Comparative Policing Jacques de Maillard,Sebastian Roché,2021-08-26 This book argues that policing should be studied in a truly comparative manner as a way of identifying more accurately the diverse features of police organisations and the trends which affect contemporary policing Studying policing comparatively is also a way to develop more sophisticated theories on the relations between police state and society aiming at higher degree of generalization In particular broadening the empirical basis often limited to Western countries favours the formulation of more encompassing theories The comparative analysis then is used to refine meso or macro theories on various aspects of policing The book covers the challenges of comparative research in diverse areas of policing studies with innovative tools and approaches to allow for the development of that subfield of policing It is a significant new contribution to policing studies and will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Public Policy Sociology Political Science and Law The chapters in this book were originally published in Policing and Society
