The Eloquence of Mary Astell Christine Mason Sutherland,2005 The Eloquence of Mary Astell makes an important contribution to the knowledge and understanding of the important role that women and one woman in particular played in the history of rhetoric Mary Astell 1666 1731 was an unusually perceptive thinker and writer during the time of the Enlightenment Here author Christine Sutherland explores her importance as a rhetorician an area that has until recently received little attention Astell was widely known and respected during her own time but her influence and reputation receded in the years after her death Her importance as an Enlightenment thinker is becoming more and more recognized however As a skilled theorist and practitioner of rhetoric Astell wrote extensively on education philosophy politics religion and the status of women She showed that it was possible for a woman to move from the semi private form of rhetoric represented by conversation and letters into full public participation in philosophical and political debate The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1998 Pope to Burney, 1714-1779 Moyra Haslett,2017-03-14 This essential guide defines literature of the eighteenth century as a literature written and received as public conversation Moyra Haslett discusses and challenges conventional ways of reading the period particularly in relation to notions of the public sphere In her wide ranging study Haslett reads key texts including The Dunciad Gulliver s Travels and Pamela in their literary and
