Poems for Architects Jill Stoner,2001 Teaching architecture through poetry UC Berkeley architecture professor Jill Stoner has amassed

48 poems selected from some of the most noted poets of the 20th century to help her architecture students understand the conceptual idea of space Each incredibly moving poem from greats such as William Blake Octavio Paz Sylvia Plath and William Carlos Williams has an accompanying illustration or photograph and a rich introductory essay A fabulous gift for those hard to buy for architects Reference Guide to American Literature Thomas Riggs, 2000 Concise discussions of the lives and principal works of American writers thinkers and cultural figures written by subject experts

Twentieth-century American Poetry Dana Gioia, David Mason, Meg Schoerke, 2004 Publisher Description

Dictionary of Literary Biography - Yearbook 1998 Matthew J. Bruccoli, George Garrett, Richard Layman, 1999-04 Updates entries already published and supplements the Dictionary of Literary Biography series with entries on newly prominent writers The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature Jay Parini, 2004 This set treats the whole of American literature from the European discovery of America to the present with entries in alphabetical order Each of the 350 substantive essays is a major interpretive contribution Well known critics and scholars provide clear and vividly written essays that reflect the latest scholarship on a given topic as well as original thinking on the part of the critic The Encyclopedia is available in print and as an e reference text from Oxford's Digital Reference Shelf At the core of the encyclopedia lie 250 essays on poets playwrights essayists and novelists The most prominent figures such as Whitman Melville Faulkner Frost Morrison and so forth are treated at considerable length 10 000 words by top flight critics Less well known figures are discussed in essays ranging from 2 000 to 5 000 words Each essay examines the life of the author in the context of his or her times looking in detail at key works and describing the arc of the writer's career These essays include an assessment of the writer's current reputation with a bibliography of major works by the writer as well as a list of major critical and biographical works about the writer under discussion A second key element of the project is the critical assessments of major American masterworks such as Moby Dick Song of Myself Walden The Great Gatsby The Waste Land Their Eyes Were Watching God Death of a Salesman or Beloved Each of these essays offers a close reading of the given work placing that work in its historical context and offering a range of possibilities with regard to critical approach These fifty essays ranging from 2 000 to 5 000 words are simply and clearly enough written that an intelligent high school student should easily understand them but sophisticated enough that a college student or general reader in a public library will find the essays both informative and stimulating The final major element of this encyclopedia consists of fifty odd essays on literary movements periods or themes pulling together a broad range of information and making interesting connections These essays treat many of the same authors already discussed but in a different context they also gather into the fold authors who do not have an entire essay on their work so that Zane Grey for example is discussed in an essay on Western literature but does not have an essay to himself In this way the project is truly encyclopedic in the conventional sense These essays aim for comprehensiveness without losing anything of the narrative force that makes them good reading in their own right In a very real fashion the literature of the American people reflects their deepest desires aspirations fears and fantasies The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature gathers a wide range of information that illumines the field itself and clarifies many of its particulars Collected Poems Mark Strand,2014 A collection of all of the poet Mark Strand s previously published poems Poems William Robert Fisher,1910 The South Carolina Review ,1999 Cassette Books Library of Congress. National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped,1978 Public Library Catalog Juliette Yaakov,2004 More than 8 000 books in the main volume More than 2 400 new titles in annual paperbound supplements More than 2 000 analytic entries for items in collections and anthologies Man and Camel Mark Strand,2006 A new collection of poetry celebrates the transience oddities and lasting beauty of life and its mysteries Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie,1904 An author subject index to selected general interest periodicals of reference value in libraries Blizzard Henri Cole,2020-09-01 Henri Cole one of our greatest poets explores the discordant nature of our condition on earth in Blizzard his tenth collection An artist of the greatest gifts Louise Gl ck Daring tender truthful the poems in Blizzard Henri Cole s tenth book build on a reputation for quiet mastery Whether he is wrestling with the mundane history and its disasters or sexual love he can sound both classical and contemporary with the modern austerity of Cavafy and Bishop Often exploring the darker places of the heart his sonnets do not lie down obediently but spark with an honest self awareness Cole s lucid empathetic poems with lyrical beauty and ethical depth seem to transmute the anxious perplexities of our time
