The Dramatic Art of Athol Fugard Albert Wertheim, 2000 Albert Wertheim's study of Fugard's plays is both extremely insightful and beautifully written a book that held my attention from beginning to end It was a pleasure to read Wertheim succeeds in communicating the greatness of Fugard as a playwright actor and director He also conveys well what Fugard has learned from other plays and dramatists Thus he places Fugard's works not so much in a South African context as in a theatrical context He also illuminates his interpretations with the help of Fugard's manuscripts previously available only in South Africa This book is aimed not only at teachers students scholars and performers of Fugard but also at the person who simply loves going to see a Fugard play at the theatre Nancy Topping Bazin Eminent Scholar and Professor Emeritus Old Dominion University Considered one of the most brilliant powerful and theatrically astute of modern dramatists South African playwright Athol Fugard is best known for The Blood Knot MASTER HAROLD and the boys A Lesson from Aloes and Sizwe Bansi Is Dead The energy and poignancy of Fugard's work have their origins in the institutionalized racism of his native South Africa and more recently in the issues facing a new South Africa after apartheid In The Dramatic Art of Athol Fugard Albert Wertheim analyzes the form and content of Fugard's dramas showing that they are more than a dramatic chronicle of South African life and racial problems Beginning with the specifics of his homeland Fugard's plays reach out to engage more far reaching issues of human relationships race and racism and the power of art to evoke change The Dramatic Art of Athol Fugard demonstrates how Fugard's plays enable us to see that what is performed on stage can also be performed in society and in our lives how inverting Shakespeare Athol Fugard makes his stage the world
