Blood Libels

Magda Teter

Blood Libels:

Blood Libel Magda Teter, 2020-01-28 A landmark history of the antisemitic blood libel myth how it took root in Europe spread with the invention of the printing press and persists today Accusations that Jews ritually killed Christian children emerged in the mid twelfth century following the death of twelve year old William of Norwich England in 1144 Later continental Europeans added a destructive twist Jews murdered Christian children to use their blood While charges that Jews poisoned wells and desecrated the communion host waned over the years the blood libel survived Initially blood libel stories were confined to monastic chronicles and local lore But the development of the printing press in the mid fifteenth century expanded the audience and crystallized the vocabulary images and facts of the blood libel providing a lasting template for hate Tales of Jews killing Christians notably Simon of Trent a toddler whose body was found under a Jewish house in 1475 were widely disseminated using the new technology Following the paper trail across Europe from England to Italy to Poland Magda Teter shows how the blood libel was internalized and how Jews and Christians dealt with the repercussions The pattern established in early modern Europe still plays out today In 2014 the Anti Defamation League appealed to Facebook to take down a page titled Jewish Ritual Murder The following year white supremacists gathered in England to honor Little Hugh of Lincoln as a sacrificial victim of the Jews Based on sources in eight countries and ten languages Blood Libel captures the long shadow of a pernicious myth

Blood Libel Magda Teter, 2020-01-07 Drawing on sources in eight countries and ten languages Magda Teter tells the history of the antisemitic blood libel myth whose long shadow extends from premodern monastic chronicles to Facebook The vocabulary and images that crystallized and spread with the invention of the printing press are still with us as are their pernicious consequences American Jewish Year Book Cyrus Adler, Henrietta Szold, 1914 Issues for 1900 1901 include report of the 12th year of the Jewish Publication Society of America 1890 1900 issued also separately in some years issues for 1908 1909 include Report of the American Jewish Committee for 1906 1908 issued also separately in some years issues for include American Jewish Committee Proceedings of the annual meeting The Blood Libel Legend Alan Dundes, 1991-10-15 Alan Dundes in this casebook of an anti Semitic legend demonstrates the power of folklore to influence thought and history According to the blood libel legend Jews murdered Christian infants to obtain blood to make matzah Dundes has gathered here the work of leading scholars who examine the varied sources and elaborations of the legend Collectively their essays constitute a forceful statement against this false accusation The legend is traced from the murder of William of Norwich in 1144 one of the first reported cases of ritualized murder attributed to Jews through nineteenth century Egyptian reports Spanish examples Catholic periodicals modern English instances and twentieth century American cases The essays deal not only with historical cases and surveys of blood libel in different locales but also with literary renditions of the legend including the ballad Sir Hugh or the Jew s Daughter and Chaucer s The Prioress s Tale These case studies provide a comprehensive view of the complex nature of the blood libel legend The concluding section of the volume includes an analysis of the legend that focuses on Christian misunderstanding of the Jewish feast of Purim and the child abuse component of the legend and that attempts to bring psychoanalytic theory to bear on the content of the blood libel legend The final essay by Alan Dundes takes a distinctly folkloristic approach examining the legend as part of the belief system that Christians developed about Jews This study of the blood libel legend will interest folklorists scholars of Catholicism and Judaism and many general readers for it is both the literature and the history of anti-Semitism

Antisemitism Through the Ages S. Almog, 1988 Is there a common denominator to be found between the Jew hatred of antiquity and the antisemitism of modern times Is antisemitism essentially constant and timeless or has it changed over the centuries This book presents a collection of essays addressing these questions throughout the totality of Jewish history in antiquity and in the Middle Ages in the Christian world and in the Muslim countries and particularly in the twentieth century It examines and assesses not only the various forms and manifestations of antisemitism in history but also the diverse interpretations which have been placed upon it by contemporaries and historians Blood and Belief David

Biale, 2007-10-23 Blood contains extraordinary symbolic power in both Judaism and Christianity as the blood of sacrifice of Jesus of the Jewish martyrs of menstruation and more Yet though they share the same literary cultural and religious origins on the question of blood the two religions have followed quite different trajectories For instance while Judaism rejects the eating or drinking of blood Christianity mandates its symbolic consumption as a central sacrament How did these two traditions both originating in the Hebrew Bible's cult of blood sacrifices veer off in such different directions With his characteristic wit and erudition David Biale traces the continuing changing and often clashing roles of blood as both symbol and substance through the entire sweep of Jewish and Christian history from Biblical times to the present The Jewish

Community of Istanbul in the Nineteenth Century Ilan Karmi, 1996 Blood Libel at Tiszaeszlar Andrew Handler, 1980
1994, Antisemitism Susan Sarah Cohen, 1987 The Jew as Ally of the Muslim Allan Harris Cutler, Helen Elmquist Cutler, 1986

Argues that after the rise of Islam in the seventh century Christian Jewish relations cannot be understood apart from Christian Islamic relations Shows that the outburst of antisemitism in Western Europe after 1000 was due primarily not to the deicide charge or socio economic rivalry but to the clash between Christianity and Islam in which Jews were seen as dangerous allies of the Muslims Analyzes the anti Jewish and anti Muslim polemical literature The Spanish Inquisition too was motivated by racial and political motives in persecuting the Conversos who were sincere converts The unprecedented mass conversions of the Jews of Spain and southern Italy in the late Middle Ages can also be explained by the attraction of Spanish Christian culture with its strong Muslim influence The Jewish Year Book, 1913 A Sacred Trust Eugene Labovitz, 1994 B'nai B'rith Manual Samuel Solomon Cohon, 1926 International Journal of Ethics, 1919 Includes section Book reviews Zionism and World Politics Horace Meyer Kallen, 1921 Factors in Modern Jewish History
