Blue Moon In Poorwater:

A Blue Moon in Poorwater Cathryn Hankla, 1988 Dorie Porke looks back to her eleventh year as a poor child in the sleepy Appalachian town of Poorwater reflects on her coal miner father strong mother and wayward brother and wonders about the powerful and mysterious gift of healing she possesses We Were Always Free T. O. Madden, Ann L. Miller, 2005 Like many other southern free Negro families originating in the colonial era when many whites women as well as men were subject to servitude the family of T O Madden Jr began with the birth in 1758 of his great great grandmother Sarah Madden She is one of the two ancestors to whom he dedicates this book Sarah s mother Mary Madden contributed the surname that endured Mary Madden was an Irishwoman who had probably immigrated as a servant a few years before Sarah s birth Although the myths of Virginia would make every colonial who was white into an aristocrat Mary Madden like most eighteenth century Virginians was indigent But unlike many others she was free Of Sarah Madden s father nothing is known The legal definition of mixed race children of blacks and whites had been settled in 1662 when the Virginia legislature enacted laws prohibiting interracial marriages and declaring that children followed the status of their mother Such legislation made children like Sarah Madden free but illegitimate Negative History Cathryn Hankla, 1997-09-01 Negative history is a legal term referring to decisions that have been overruled or questioned in some way by an appellate court Cathryn Hankla s Negative History alludes to such ambiguity in the domain of a more personal justice as the title poem suggests Petals of morning open in lucid order opposed to the law Here is a question without an answer Through these enthralling poems the reader enters spheres of history and emotion in which there are more often ironies to be observed than answers to be found or justice served And yet what can be discovered through vivid visual detail through the poet s eye can lift us from our reliance on the world s determinations and into an appreciation of life s mysteries With the issues tackled in Negative History individual and familial identity cultural and emotional heritage Hankla skillfully balances keenest loss with the gains some losses paradoxically make available Submerging yourself you learned to search the darkness This remarkable collection plumbs the depths of sexual and transcendent love Let me die trying to tell you one word that might matter and summons from those murky realms the feral nature of strong emotions and of our own fears I have unearthed enough emptiness to survive In Negative History Hankla professes the power of love to carry us from where the press of heat healed the split The Virginia Quarterly Review ,2000 Olderr's Fiction Index ,1988 A Guidebook to Mining in America John R. Park, 2000 The New York Times Index ,1988 Twayne Companion to Contemporary Literature in English: Ammons-Lurie Richard H. W. Dillard, Amanda Cockrell, 2003 This new title offers a unique collection of critical essays on writers of poetry and fiction of the past 25 years This two volume anthology provides detailed updated entries on approximately 100 American Canadian British and Irish writers including Maya Angelou John Ashbery Mary Gaitskill Ted Hughes Toni Morrison Michael Ondaatje Thomas Pynchon and Anne Tyler American Book Publishing Record ,1998
