Uddiyana Guru Padmasambhava : The Second Buddha Prabir Kumar Pattanaik,2024-07-07 Buddhist Acharya

Padmasambhava of the Vajrayana school of Mahayana sect being invited by the king of Tibet went there during the first half of the eighth century AD He firmly established this esoteric form of Buddhism there and other Himalayan lands which is known as Lamaism He is deified and celebrated in Lamaism as Buddha himself even more than that As a direct result of Padmasambhava's efforts the people of Tibet were elevated to a state of unsurmountable spiritual culture He is therefore truly one of the greatest of the world's culture heroes He is most revered and is honoured as the Second Buddha He belongs to India and hails from Uddiyana Therefore he is popularly known as Uddiyana Guru But a holy personality known all over the world a Great Guru is almost a forgotten name in India least remembered not in history not in literature not anywhere even among the Buddhist circles in India Padmasambhava originally belongs to Uddiyana the location of this place has been disputed by some scholars to be in Swat Valley within the ancient Gandhara region which is not tenable The present work is an attempt to study all aspects pertaining to this Guru starting from his magical appearance and penances to his mystical life his works and achievements all through the Himalayan region along with Tibet That leads to establish strongly that the home of the Uddiyana Guru is nowhere else but in Odisha Focus has been laid to establish facts and all evidences showing that Uddiyana is but Odisha This may be considered as the exclusive and exhaustive compilation published for the first time in India
