Boreham,2017-07-25 If you asked him his profession he would say he was a pastor but he was superlative as a writer You would think that I was joking if I told you that when he was a child a gypsy told his nanny that if she put a pen in his hand he would never want for work He was among Charles Spurgeon s last personally chosen students for his Bible school When Charles brother James Spurgeon returned from New Zealand needing a replacement in those remote islands Boreham accepted the charge It was the start of a long life of ministry and writing in New Zealand and Australia In the early twentieth century at a preachers conference one preacher said of F W Boreham that his books were on all their shelves his name was on all their lips and his illustrations were in all their sermons Many years later in 1959 Ruth Graham wife of Billy Graham said that she had read almost all of his books and was in the process of acquiring and finishing the last few While preaching in the area Billy Graham made a special trip to visit this famous writer and preacher Impeccable timing as it turned out to be the last year of the author s life Writer and apologist Ravi Zacharias has said that he reads an essay by F W Boreham everyday That is some call them essays others call them sermons They straddle the line between preaching and storytelling they are deep enough to be studied by a trained philosopher creative enough to captivate anyone in need of a great story inspiring enough to satisfy any Christian thirsty for living water I suppose Boreham s writings should speak for him although several eminent men have spoken for him too Spurgeon one of the 19th century s greatest preachers Billy Graham one of the 20th century s greatest evangelists and Ravi Zacharias one of the 21st century s greatest apologists they all tipped their hat to this writer Because of his long life and early commitment to read a book every week he seems to quote or reference every famous Christian of his time including not only preachers but missionaries inventors scientists storytellers and adventurers F W Boreham wrote over 2000 biographical articles for an Australia newspaper during his lifetime many of which were put into his books With 52 full length books and dozens of booklets to his name he was until 1990 the most prolific religious writer in Australia s history Today his readers agree that no one else has such a knack for taking a commonplace topic or story and zooming out his lens until at the end of almost every essay you gain a glimpse of Christ that impels you to worship
