The Icicle and the Sun

"Mr Sansom is a genius in prose. He makes you drink with the colour of his words. . . . I was transported to Denmark, Finland, Sweden and Norway in a moment of delight. He has the wonderful gift of not only presenting for you the character of the countries he visits, the richness of the landscapes, the life and again I say colour of the seasons, but also the personality of the people. You never see that if I had the money I would be off to Scandinavia tomorrow!" James Graham, BBC

"The reader will be about Scandinavia . . . we hardly need by Mr Sansom. . . . The picturesque and the telling phrases that have always been the strength of Mr Sansom's writing. . . . Mr Sansom's gift for getting down an impression is happy in the service of the reader's taste. . . . One may without exaggeration apply the phrase "a fine second magnitude" to most of Mr Sansom's writing in this book. All his scenes are sparkling lights of colour, above all, this is a book of colour, peace, harmonious and inspiring." The Times Literary Supplement

"His writing is rich in the evocative phrase. He can come up with striking imagery and catch the special feeling of a landscape in a rapid series of admirable images." Punch

"Mr Sansom is blessed with an international spirit and an artist's eye." London Economist, Time and Tide

"Exceptionally good." International Review, Sunday Times

"His scenes with a knowledge and affection that will make his book a joy to students of the north, and no one but blind to the map need wonder to be surprised." The Times
