C U Next Tuesday Ruth Wajnryb, 2005 Linguists have traditionally been coy about the subject of swearing so much so that two of the most frequently used four letter words in the English language have only recently found their way into standard dictionaries But Ruth Wajnryb approaches the subject head on challenging her reader to set shock and sniggers aside and to examine it like any other kind of communication The result is a fascinating and often very funny book that will quickly persuade her readers that bad language is possibly even more interesting than good Ruth Wajnryb shows us that swearing is common to
