The Blue J Jonathan Louis Guernsey, 2025-11-03 In African American folklore there once was a blue jay that was conscripted as a servant of the devil This blue jay has seen the fires of hell that wicked men speak of without boundaries in both words and deeds His story has been published around the world without remorse to any who have witnessed the same hell and accused him of being the one who brings it His name is Jesus and if you ever thought you knew him I beg to differ From words in red that have him condemning to what it truly means to repent the whole world will laugh and cry after reading his gospel that no one has revealed until now He has in fact come from the world beyond his Father sent him here for the purpose of regeneration His story has been skewed by the righteous and the ones crossing over to find love light and wisdom strengthen his spirit to defend all who use the devil in their theology If there ever was a time in history that truly awakens the hearts to Jesus and his Father it s now and we all can live as he lived without condemnation upon who we direct his love toward in spirit and in truth
