

Dining Etiquette 101

The holiday season is around the corner, so let's start new traditions by following old traditions. Here are some basic rules of etiquette at a formal table setting:

Salt and/or pepper: They should be passed together, even when only one is requested. Don't season food before tasting it.

Stemware (glasses): Glasses are passed to the left (as shown). Wine is poured from the right. Don't overfill glasses.

Place card: Never switch or change seating arrangements already planned by host.

Dessert spoon and fork: When dessert is served with both fork and spoon, the fork is the pusher and the spoon is used for eating.

Napkin placement: Once seated, the host takes his napkin. Then guests follow and place theirs on their laps.

Bread dish and butter knife: Tear bread into bite-size pieces on the bread plate and butter each piece with butter knife just before you eat it.

Cutlery: The rule is to use it from the outside in. Once a utensil has been used, it should not touch the table again.

Salad fork Fish fork Meat fork

Flatware: The number of silverware pieces indicates number of courses to be served. A formal dinner consists of seven courses. In this order: soup, fish, entrée (or palate cleanser), a meat or fowl dish, salad, dessert and coffee.

Meat knife Fish knife Salad knife Soup spoon

EATING SOUP

When eating soup, tilt the spoon away from you.

To get the last bit of soup from the bottom of the bowl, tilt the soup plate away from you.

HOLDING UTENSILS

Knives and forks are held in a relaxed manner.

CUTTING MEATS

When holding the meat knife, place your index finger about an inch down from the handle to help guide down firmly. Hold the fork in your left hand, prongs down. Cut only enough food for each mouthful.

PROPOSING A TOAST

The custom of clinking glasses originally was used to drive away evil spirits. If you clink, do so with care, especially with fine crystal. For the most part, simply raise your glass in the direction of the person being toasted. Toasts should be long enough to cover the subject but short enough to be amusing — about a minute.

It may be a nice idea to toast people in their native tongue.

Salud (SA-lud): Spanish
Slainte (SLAYN-tye): Irish
L'chaim (leh-KHY-ym): Yiddish
Prosit (PRO-sit): German
Kampai (KAM-pee): Japanese
Santé (SAN-tye): French/Québec

FINGER FOODS These are foods you can and should eat with your fingers.

Asparagus

Corn on the cob

Artichoke

Bread

Hors d'Oeuvres

Chips

Cookies

Fruits with stems

Sandwiches and fries

RESTING POSITION

When you take a break from the table, your knife and fork should be crossed in one of the positions shown.

When stepping away from the table, leave your napkin loosely on the chair.

FINISHED POSITION

The dessert spoon should be resting on the saucer and not the cup.

At the end of the meal, the knife and fork should be at the 12 o'clock position.

Wait for the host to loosely place his/her napkin to the left of his/her place setting when the meal is finished.
