

JANE AUSTEN

Jane Austen was an English writer, born in 1775 at Steventon, Hampshire. She wrote at least 14 books and many of them are very famous. Jane came from a family of six brothers and one sister, Cassandra. Her father, George, was the local vicar but he was also a part-time teacher. Jane read many books during her childhood (her father had a library of 500 books) and the whole family enjoyed reading. Jane also liked dancing and going to parties and she often wrote about dances in her books. In 1783, Jane and her sister went to a school in Southampton and their teachers was Mrs. Cawley (she was the sister of one of their uncles). The family later moved to Bath when Jane's father retired.
