A Reboours Roman Babel:

The Mirror of Divinity Robert Ziegler,2004-05 Using a multidisciplinary approach this book argues that the operation of art as mirror is the key to the hidden unity of Huysmans fiction The author claims that only the elimination of Huysmans stylistic distortions enabled his art finally to become faithful and clear "A Dream of Stone" Michael D. Garval,2004 With democratization of fame in the wake of the French Revolution writers enjoyed ever greater celebrity status But in nineteenth century France the availability and perceived impermanence of such renown cheapened it and prompted longing for enduring fame exemplified by monuments commemorative sculptural or architectural works helping a nation in flux define itself its past and anticipated future Within this cultural climate there evolved an ideal of great writers and their work as immortal that envisioned literary greatness through the metaphor of monuments and monumentality study draws upon wide ranging evidence from journalism to poetry caricature to statuary Focusing on the lives work and fame of Honore de Balzac George Sand and Victor Hugo it uncovers the salient features and traces the rise and fall of this monumentalizing vision of literary greatness largely forgotten today yet so central to nineteenth century French culture North Carolina State University

Feminizing the Fetish Emily Apter,2018-03-15 Shoes gloves umbrellas cigars that are not just objects the topic of fetishism seems both bizarre and inevitable In this venturesome and provocative book Emily Apter offers a fresh account of the complex relationship between representation and sexual obsession in turn of the century French culture Analyzing works by authors in the naturalist and realist traditions as well as making use of documents from a contemporary medical archive she considers fetishism as a cultural artifact and as a subgenre of realist fiction Apter traces the web of connections among fin de si cle representations of perversion the fiction of pathology and the literary case history She explores in particular the theme of female fetishism in the context of the feminine culture of mourning collecting and dressing Mi Fu Peter Charles Sturman,1997-01-01 Mi Fu was a prominent calligrapher in 11th century China This analysis of his work considers content and style and examines his calligraphy within the framework of the artist s life the Northern Song culture in which he lived and the literati theory of art he helped to formulate The Turn of the Century Christian Berg, Frank Durieux, Geert Lernout,1995 Rewritten versions of contributions to an international conference held at the University of Antwerp in May 1992 Starting point for the conference was the vagueness of the very terms modernism and modernity In the first section a group of comparatists address the theoretical and terminological problems of modernism Practical readings of modernist

Egoists James Huneker, 2015-01-16 Example in this ebook A SENTIMENTAL EDUCATION HENRY BEYLE STENDHAL The fanciful notion that psychological delicacy is accompanied by a corresponding physical exterior should have received a death blow in the presence of Henry Beyle better known as Stendhal Chopin Shelley Byron and Cardinal Newman did not in personal appearance contradict their verse prose and music but Stendhal possessing an exquisite sensibility was as Hector Berlioz cruelly wrote in his Memoirs A little pot bellied man with a spiteful smile who tried to look grave Sainte Beuve is more explicit Physically his figure though not short soon grew thick set and heavy his neck short and full blooded His fleshy face was framed in dark curly hair and whiskers which before his death were assisted by art His forehead was fine the nose turned up and somewhat Calmuck in shape His lower lip which projected a little betrayed his tendency to scoff His eyes were rather small but very bright deeply set in their cavities and pleasing when he smiled His hands of which he was proud were small and daintily shaped In the last years of his life he grew heavy and apoplectic But he always took great pains to conceal the symptoms of physical decay even from his own friends Henri Monnier who caricatured him apparently in a gross manner denied that he had departed far from his model Some one said that Stendhal looked like an apothecary Homais presumably or M Prudhomme His maternal grandfather Doctor Gagnon assured him when a youth that he was ugly but he consolingly added that no one would reproach him for his ugliness The piercing and brilliant eye that like a mountain lake could be both still and stormy his eloquent and ironical mouth pugnacious bearing Celtic profile big shoulders and well modelled leg made an ensemble if not alluring at least striking No man with a face capable of a hundred shades of expression can be ugly Furthermore Stendhal was a charming causeur bold copious witty With his conversation he drolly remarked he paid his way into society And this demigod or monster as he was alternately named by his admirers and enemies could be the most impassioned of lovers His life long he was in love Prosper M rim e declares he never encountered such furious devotion to love It was his master passion Not Napoleon not his personal ambitions not even Italy were such factors in Stendhal s life as his attachments His career was a sentimental education This ugly man with the undistinguished features was a haughty cavalier an intellectual Don Juan a tender sighing swain a sensualist and ever lyric where the feminine was concerned But once seated pen in hand the wise worldly cynic was again master My head is a magic lantern he said And his literary style is on the surface as unattractive as were the features of the man the inner ear for the rhythms and sonorities of prose was missing That is the first paradox in the Beyle Stendhal case To be continue in this ebook Foods of the Gods Gary Westfahl, George Edgar Slusser, Eric S. Rabkin, 1996 Gluttony and starvation pleasure and pain growth and decay These and other extremes of our condition related to food though all but banned from the civilized tables of mainstream fiction are ideal topics for the undomesticated free roaming modes of fantasy As acts and ideas food and eating are fundamental to all that makes us human and dominate our symbolic realms of art literature and cuisine These essays show us the power of speculative modes of fiction to help us look anew at prehistorical and psychomythical attitudes toward food and eating historical Western cultural attitudes toward the material fact of food and the necessity of eating and the relationship between attitudes toward food and how how much when and where we eat The contributors come from a variety of backgrounds including anthropology film and French Russian English and medieval literature Ranging in their focus from shamans to cannibals utopias to social Darwinism muscle magazines to supermarket tabloids the contributors discuss the theory and practice of science fictional eating the dialectic at the level of eating between individual needs and collective norms and the ways that eating habits and the availability and choice of food serve to contextualize and demarcate modern fictional genres In addition to discussing such writers as C S Lewis Stephen King Octavia Butler Jonathan Swift and Anne Rice the contributors also consider such films as Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom and Cocteau s Beauty and the Beast
