A Return To Emptiness:

A Return to Emptiness Chris Ransick, 2012-06 A Colorado Book Award finalist A Return to Emptiness is a collection of short stories about life loss and love In Ransick s words Loss is common to us all yet multifarious in individual experience I wrote these stories not primarily to describe loss but to circumscribe it which is to say that I drew a circle of narratives round the experience to both locate and limit it I was vaguely aware of this at the time of the writing It s quite clear now Nobody gets out of this life without experiencing loss as well as what is offered in recompense to those with the humility and quietude to accept emptiness Stories are an ancient way of communicating experience and a collection of short fiction is a unique and complex symbol set that can in the best cases fill a void turn loss to gain If I had my way this book would do that for the reader

The Dialectics of Absolute Nothingness Gregory S. Moss, Takeshi Morisato, 2025-02-15 The Dialectics of Absolute Nothingness investigates the appropriations critiques and innovative interpretations of German philosophy by the Kyoto School showing how central concepts of German philosophical traditions found a place within non Western frameworks such as Zen and Pure Land Buddhism thereby transcending the original Western context Kyoto School philosophers critically engaged with their own tradition and grappled with classical German philosophy from Kant to German Idealism and from Neo Kantianism to German phenomenology Far from mimicking the Western tradition Nishida Tanabe Nishitani and other Japanese philosophers overcame their sense of alienation from European philosophy by making its concepts their own and advancing their ideas as a hybrid of European and Japanese philosophy through which they developed their own world historical perspective Showcasing the ways that Kyoto School philosophers internalized German philosophy and generated their own original perspectives The Dialectics of Absolute Nothingness demonstrates the Kyoto School's potential for culturally diversifying the study of German philosophy and paves the way for the comprehensive study of Asian philosophy in European and global contexts Nothingness: Tadao Ando's Christian Sacred Space Jin Baek,2009-06-12 Based around an interview with Tadao Ando this book explores the influence of the Buddhist concept of nothingness on Ando's Christian architecture and sheds new light on the cultural significance of the buildings of one of the world's leading contemporary architects Specifically this book situates Ando's churches particularly his world renowned Church of the Light 1989 within the legacy of nothingness expounded by Kitaro Nishida 1870-1945 the father of the Kyoto Philosophical School Linking Ando's Christian architecture with a philosophy originating in Mahayana Buddhism illuminates the relationship between the two religious systems as well as tying Ando's architecture to the influence of Nishida on post war Japanese art and culture

Poetic Leaps in Zen'S Journey of Enlightenment Yong Zhi,2012-08-09 While the philosophical discussion of Zen spirituality reaches its limit poetry offers an effective expression of the sublime experiences From a poetic perspective enlightenment is understood as poetic leaps in the spiritual journey which brings people from the habitually or conventionally established world toward new horizons of consciousness This leap is a breakthrough in the overall consciousness rather than a progression in contemplative thought Therefore it cannot be adequately described through abstract representation but poetry can metaphorically capture this leap and reveal both the spiritual meaning and the practical wisdom of enlightenment This book will take you on this fantastic journey of enlightenment
