

Prayer For A Wounded Pet

Dear Lord in Heaven,
Please help my wounded pet. Heal it from its wounds. I prevent any infections in Jesus' name. I pray that you restore its strength. Let the doctors and medications all work to perfection. Fill it with the strength to resist the pain. Strengthen its spirit to be able to get through this. Bless it with fortitude and determination. Let the days ahead be days of healing and bring back the joy it once felt

Amen

A Prayer for the Wounded Jeani Di Carlo,2004-03      A Manual of Prayer for the Wounded ,1854      The Healing Christ ,1914      Wounded Woman Be Ye Healed-Passing On A Legacy Desiree M Webb,2017-03-06 Our churches are emptying Could it be because of wounding Many people leave and don t look back because of being wounded by wounded people Rank is no determinant of healing as wounding affects all levels and ages Hurtful words interactions and behaviors are often due to unhealed emotional wounds Jesus is concerned about the sheep that are runaway and those who stay in an unhealed condition wounding others The church cannot minister victory to others effectively if it is sick emotionally To this end Desiree has turned the lights on in hopes of facilitating victorious healing in the body of Christ Let this book start the conversation and the healing that we might truly reflect victory and enjoy true unity and fellowship      Wounded Wounder or Wounded Healer Dr. Eugene C Rollins,2020-09-11 All people are wounded in some way and in some form to some degree The book seeks to answer the question why some people heal and become healers and assets to the community while other people do not heal becoming wounders of other people and liabilities to the community      A Ten-Part Book to Maximizing Your Potential Danny Ray Christian,2015-10-30 Two things you should know about this book are the fact that if you have ever wanted an answer to breaking out of your poverty low self esteem or addiction you will find it here I have drawn on my experience of spending many years dealing with these issues for solutions as to how they can be successfully conquered I am a living testimony that where the mind and spirit leads the body will follow and that we can always do better than we know Secondly when I decided to publish this book I made up my mind that I wasn t going to try and sell it to anyone who isn t tired of being sick and tired and who hasn t reached the point that they can t go on doing the same old thing expecting different results I know that when people get sick enough of meeting with failure and disappointment you won t have to go looking for them with a cure they will come looking for you I am convinced that as bad as things are for many of us that our suffering is working to drive us to God and the solutions He has enabled concerned people to develop This book is for those who want to do something different than they have always done to get something different than they have always had It may hurt the sale of this book but I don t encourage you to buy it if you are not ready to do some serious work on the problem areas of your life and are tired of making excuses for your life not getting better if you are not doing anything to make it better This book is not for your shelf it is to be used in fixing anything broken in your life mind or spirit      The Healing Christ ,1918      A manual of prayer for the wounded Manual,1854      Prayer in Nursing Mary Elizabeth O'Brien,2003 The work of nursing the sick has long been considered a vocation or a calling strengthened when prayer is included as a central component of nursing ministry Prayer in Nursing The Spirituality of Compassionate Caregiving examines the role of prayer in the life of a nurse from a variety of perspectives including the history of prayer in nursing the importance of prayer in contemporary caregiving prayer in caring nurse patient relationships and the connection between prayer and a healing ministry Each chapter begins with a meditation and ends with a prayer reflecting on a nurse s spirituality

A Phenomenology of the Divine Image Thomas Breedlove,2026-03-19 What does it mean to speak of humans as the image of God when apophatic theology speaks of an infinite God who transcends naming comprehension and worldly appearance Bringing Church Father Gregory of Nyssa into dialogue with French phenomenology in Michel Henry Maurice Merleau Ponty and Jean Louis Chretien Thomas Breedlove answers this question and explores the importance of embodiment to the doctrine of imago Dei Divided into three parts this book presents the divine image not as merely one aspect of the human creature but rather as that which constitutes human creatureliness itself So constituted human nature is shaped by likeness and difference to God Breedlove investigates this relationship between human and divine through three successive approaches The first in conversation with Merleau Ponty analyses the existential and phenomenological aspects of fleshly finitude as the paradigmatic site of the creature s difference from God The second takes up Henry s philosophy of life alongside Gregory s metaphysics of participation to offer an account of creaturely life in its likeness or identity to divine life The third though conversation with Chr tien examines the christological aspects of Gregory s anthropology in order to find the dynamic synthesis in which likeness and difference and presence and absence reveal a creaturely nature wounded by divine love In blending 4th century theology with 20th century phenomenology Breedlove not only showcases the alternative perspectives they can offer each other but further presents a novel theological anthropology and a new theological account of the flesh He argues that the dynamism and groundlessness of creaturely flesh where mind and body intersect reveals what it means to be created as images of God This revelation is founded in Christ whose life reveals finitude not as an impediment to be overcome but as the very possibility of likeness to the divine
