The Challenge of Bewilderment Paul B. Armstrong, 2018-03-15 The Challenge of Bewilderment treats the epistemology of representation in major works by Henry James Joseph Conrad and Ford Madox Ford attempting to explain how the novel turned away from its traditional concern with realistic representation and toward self consciousness about the relation between knowing and narration Paul B Armstrong here addresses the pivotal thematic experience of bewilderment an experience that challenges the reader's very sense of reality and that shows it to have no more certainty or stability than an interpretative construct Through readings of The Sacred Fount and The Ambassadors by James Lord Jim and Nostromo by Conrad and The Good Soldier and Parade's End by Ford Armstrong examines how each writer dramatizes his understanding of the act of knowing Armstrong demonstrates how the novelists attitudes toward the process of knowing inform experiments with representation through which they thematize the relation between the understanding of a fictional world and everyday habits of perception Finally he considers how these experiments with the strategies of narration produce a heightened awareness of the process of interpretation

Sufism and Deconstruction Ian Almond, 2004-08-02 Examining a series of common features in the works of Derrida and the Sufism of Ibn Arabi considered to be one of the most influential figures in Islamic thought the author addresses the significant absence of attention on the relationship between Islam and Derrida Presenting a deconstructive perspective on Ibn Arabi the book's features include the opposition to systematizing representations of God reality the text a re emphasis on the radical unthinkability of God and the text a common conception of rational thought as restrictive commodifying and ultimately illusory and a subsequent appraisal of confusion as leading to a higher state of knowledge a positive belief in the infinite interpretability of the text a suspicion of representation and an awareness of its semantic futility along with a common welcoming affirmation of openness and errancy towards God and the text This book will be essential reading for advanced students and academics of Religious studies Arabic and Islamic studies and those interested in the work of Derrida and Ibn

Arabi Current Religious Thought ,1916 A Short History of English Commerce and Industry Langford Lovell Price,1900 The Cinematic Jane Austen David Monaghan,Ariane Hudelet,John Wiltshire,2014-01-10 Jane Austen s novels are loved because they possess a comedic power that is often conveyed through the singular voice of the narrators Film adaptations however have often been unsatisfactory because they lack or awkwardly render features particularly the voice of the narrators This work argues for a fresh approach that begins with a reading of the novels that emphasizes their auditory and visual dimensions Building on their examination of Austen s inherently cinematic features the authors then develop productive new readings of the films Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here A Companion to William Faulkner Richard C. Moreland,2017-06-14 This comprehensive Companion to William Faulkner reflects the current dynamic state of Faulkner studies Explores the contexts criticism genres and interpretations of Nobel Prize winning writer William Faulkner arguably the greatest American novelist Comprises newly commissioned essays written by an international contributor team of leading scholars Guides readers through the plethora of critical approaches to Faulkner over the past few decades Draws upon current Faulkner scholarship as well as critically reflecting on previous interpretations The Bewildered Society George Charles Roche,1972 Intercollegian ,1930 The Presbyterian ,1903 Unity ,1923 The Spectator ,1877 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art Beatrice of Venice Max Pemberton,1904 History of Dekalb County, Indiana ,1914 The Chautauquan ,1894 New-York Observer ,1903 A Tangled I Montagu Wood,1906 Some Indian Friends and Acquaintances David Douglas Cunningham,1903 Peripheral Visions Ian A. Bell,1995 Throughout contemporary British writing the question of national identity recurs By means of its testimony to lived experience the novel seems to offer the possibility of exploring local communities and marginalized identities in various elaborate ways However by its very metropolitanism and as a result of the material circumstances of publishing and the cosmopolitan nature of the audience the British novel inevitably conglomerates around London and its exploration of the remainder of Britain has tended to be patchy and touristy
