Blinded By Might:

Blinded by Might Cal Thomas, Ed Dobson, 1999 It was 1980 They had just helped to elect their president Ronald Reagan They had millions of dollars the attention of the national media and a supposed army of mobilized followers This was their moment to reverse decades of creeping secularism intrusive socialism threatening communism and raging humanism They called themselves the Moral Majority But they failed They failed in their first stated objectives to end abortion eliminate pornography restore the shattered American family and usher in a better world in which traditional values were not only accepted but embraced What happened Why is America no better and probably worse after nearly twenty years of vigorous sophisticated and relentless political action by the church Blinded by Might is the story of two men who were at the center of the Moral Majority Cal Thomas and Ed Dobson behind the scenes lieutenants to the architects of the religious right argue that the reason the Moral Majority or any other religious political movement cannot succeed is because it has been using the wrong tools in the wrong way for the wrong reasons The authors retrace their own steps showing why the efforts of people like Jerry Falwell Ralph Reed and James Dobson were doomed from the start They disclose never reported inside information on a movement that they helped create in order to show why it failed And they use their mistakes and the mistakes of others to point people of faith in a more positive direction The authors call for unilateral disarmament by the religious right and a rearmament using different weapons and different strategies This stirring book offers a new vision for America from the architects of the Moral Majority And it shows how conservative Christianity offers hope for lasting transformation through the Gospel of Jesus Christ
