Blood Work:

blood/work: poems bani haykal, David Wong Hsien Ming, Izyanti Asa'ari, 2026-02-24 blood work brings together three poets whose voices intertwine across themes of endurance immanent pain and the body's remembering Moving between confession and collaboration the collection traces how blood as kinship sacrifice and persistence binds us to histories both chosen and imposed Each poet writes into the work of living the physical the emotional and the collective labour of becoming In dialogue their poems blur boundaries of voice and authorship building a shared anatomy of care and survival blood work asks what is passed through us what we carry and how writing might transform what wounds into what endures
