James Ciment

Bloodlines From Ethnic Pride To Ethnic Terrorism:

Bloodlines Vamik D. Volkan, 1997 The author analyzes how ethnic conflict is affected by the formation of group identity the desire for revenge and perception versus reality

Bloodlines Vamik Volkan, 1998-11-27 In the wake of recent conflicts in Russia and the former Yugoslavia ethnic terrorism and ethnic cleansing have become household words Yet we are at a loss to find solutions to such struggles In Bloodlines Vamik Volkan a world renowned psychiatrist specializing in international relations explores ethnic violence by examining history and diplomacy through a psycho analytic lens Dr Volkan leads the reader on investigative tours of battlegrounds in the Middle East Russia Turkey Cyprus the Baltics and the Balkans In Serbia he discovers that the Battle of Kosovo fought in 1389 is the rallying cry for modern nationalists who view the past as prophecy In Turkey PKK terrorist leader Apo reveals that he still considers himself an unloved child and orders his army of Kurdish women to remain virgins because of his own disgust with unclean adult behavior In Latvia after the dissolution of the USSR Dr Volkan learns that ethnic Latvians plan to disinter corpses and segregate cemeteries in an attempt to establish a national identity separate from that of Russia Drawing on a variety of disciplines Dr Volkan analyzes these issues of identity formation perceived versus real threats the persistence of past traumas and the desire for revenge The result is a work that lays the foundation for understanding the differences between ethnic groups as well as the common ground they share Timely brilliant and gripping Bloodlines gives fascinating insights into how personal identity intertwines with nationality and why hatred of others becomes a part of our sense of self

White Evangelicals and Right-Wing Populism Marcia Pally, 2022-05-04 How did America's white evangelicals from often progressive history come to right wing populism Addressing populism requires understanding how its historical cultural roots ground present politics How have the very qualities that contributed much to American vibrancy an anti authoritarian government wariness and energetic community building turned under conditions of distress to defensive us them worldviews Readers will gain an understanding of populism and of the socio political and religious history from which populism draws its us them policies and worldview The book ponders the tragic cast of the white evangelical story i the distorting effects of economic and way of life duress on the understanding of history and present circumstances and ii the tragedy of choosing us them solutions to duress that won't relieve it leaving the duress in place Readers will trace the trajectory from economic status loss and way of life duresses to solutions in populist us them binaries They will explore the robust white evangelical contribution to civil society but also to racism xenophobia and sexism White evangelicals not in the ranks of the right their worldview and activism are discussed in a final chapter This book is valuable reading for students of political and social sciences as well as anyone interested in US politics

Education for Sustainable Peace and Conflict Resilient Communities Borislava Manojlovic, 2017-08-23 This book articulates a practice and theory of education that aims to facilitate the emergence of sustainable peace and conflict resilient communities in societies plagued by conflict It does so by examining the agency of conflict resilient communities and the dynamic processes of their interactions with larger societal structure Although education is seen as a human right the design of education policies schooling models and curricula has primarily been the prerogative of elites be they governments academics or international actors This book argues for a different approach to education contending for more inclusivity and open deliberation in modeling education frameworks Drawing on case studies and interviews with practitioners scholars activists and policymakers it applies the lenses of conflict resolution to a variety of education issues within fragile societies

Desire of the Analysts Greg Forter, Paul Allen Miller, 2008-01-10 Why do we continue to desire psychoanalysis What can this desire contribute to a vital cultural criticism In Desire of the Analysts these and other questions are addressed by leading contributors from a variety of fields including Sharon Nell Deneen Senasi Kaja Silverman Henry Sussman Domietta Torlasco Pierre Zoberman and Slavoj Žižek They argue for the urgency of a psychoanalytic criticism that is at once intellectually vibrant politically engaged and uniquely able to illuminate the psychic motivations and gratifications underlying a range of contemporary cultural phenomena These phenomena include nationalistic violence the formation of normative masculinity the psychic appeal of domination and submission and the place of the queer desire in counterhegemonic practices The contributors explore the role of psychoanalysis in shaping the future of cultural criticism elaborate on innovative ways to approach group dynamics from a psychoanalytic perspective rethink psychoanalytic understandings of authorship and offer original interpretations of the intersections between gender sexuality and domination Desire of the Analysts demonstrates that psychoanalysis remains an indispensable resource for critiquing our contemporary condition Thoughts for the Times on Groups and Masses Daniela Finzi, Jeanne Wolff Bernstein, 2025-01-15 In groups the most contradictory ideas can exist side by side and tolerate each other without any conflict arising from the logical contradiction between them wrote Freud in his 1921 book Group Psychology and the Analysis of the Ego One hundred years later in an age of war social networks and ubiquitous threats to democracy the questions raised by Freud are as relevant as ever In today's mass and group formations psychological processes and mechanisms can be recognized as they were described by Freud a century ago compliance hypnotization regression idealization identification and fusion with the Other This anthology is the result of an interdisciplinary symposium organized by the Sigmund Freud Museum Vienna In their contributions scholars from psychoanalysis philosophy sociology and literary studies present critical readings of the text and focus on current issues such as the rise of right wing populist movements the role of the narcissistic leader and mass phenomena in the digital age

Locations of God Mark G. Brett, 2019-09-10 Political theology is critical reflection on the intersections of religious political and economic life and in the Hebrew Bible it emerges in a broad range of topics sovereignty leadership law peoplehood hospitality redemption creation and hope The classic biblical literature has shaped the social imaginations of many peoples from ancient Canaan to global Christianity today so this study also gives attention to key developments in the history of the Bible's reception Understanding the inner biblical debates and their later interpretations will continue to be relevant for those who still live within the Bible's history of influence

Gendered Inequalities in Asia Helle Rydstrøm, 2010 Global processes with flows in money commodities and people have made it increasingly varied and blurred what it means to be a female or male in Asia today Socio economic and cultural patterns in Asia intersect with one another and in doing so they translate into power relations that create both possibilities and constraints for women and men By focusing on unequal access to political and religious power occupation and health facilities as well as different options when it comes to family life and sexuality the recognition of women and men are explored in this volume as manifestations of ideas about femininity and masculinity Readers will find insightful and enriching contributions that consider how gender relations in Asia and indeed the very meaning of gender itself are affected by neo liberalism globalization and economic growth security in all of its meanings multiculturalism race and class family life power and intergenerational support religious discourses and activism and by male norms in politics This title highlights the complex ways in which the positions of women and men are configured recognized and contested in a rapidly transforming region It offers a fresh multidisciplinary perspective on gender inequalities
