Environmental Policymaking Michael T. Hatch, 2005-03-17 Case studies that assess the value of new approaches to environmental policymaking in the United States and abroad Merchant Vessels of the United States, 1989 What Price Utopia? Daphne Patai, 2008-05-20 This volume brings together for the first time more than two dozen of Daphne Patai's incisive and at times satirical essays dealing with the academic and intellectual orthodoxies of our time Patai draws on her years of experience in an increasingly bizarre academic world where a stifling politicization threatens genuine teaching and learning Addressing the rise of feminist dogma the domination of politics over knowledge the shoddy thinking and moralizing that hide behind identity politics and the degradation of scholarship her essays offer a resounding defense of liberal values Patai takes aim at the unctuous and also dangerous posturing that has brought us restrictive speech codes harassment policies and a vigilante atmosphere while suppressing plain speaking about crucial issues But these trenchant essays are not limited to academic life for the ideas and practices popularized there have spread far beyond campus borders Included are two new pieces written especially for this volume one on the bullying tactics of a famous feminist and the other on Islamic fundamentalism Being a Blue Angel Mark I. Sutherland, Amy C. Sutherland, 2017-07-04 In Being a Blue Angel children will meet these heroes in blue see what they do and how they live be inspired by them and learn how they could one day find themselves Being a Blue Angel Updated with 2017 2018 team members and other changes The author worked directly with the Blue Angels and flew with the team as a VIP guest Being a Blue Angel Mark I Sutherland, Amy C Sutherland, 2012-11-01 The authors introduce children to the Blue Angels the heroes in blue showing what they do and how they live Readers will be inspired by them as they learn how they could one day find themselves Being a Blue Angel Frca Frca, 1998-06-09 Boys' Life, 1991-10 Boys' Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting The Blue Angel (Der Blaue Engel) S.S. Praver, 2019-07-25 This comprehensive study reconstructs the production history of The Blue Angel 1930 showing how director Josef von Sternberg's virtuoso visual style was amply supported by an immensely talented team of actors and technicians It also analyzes the film's aesthetics and shows how the grave political situation in Germany reverberated in its seemingly airtight world One of the most famous images in cinema is to be found in the film The Blue Angel 1930 Lola Lola Marlene Dietrich in revealing black suspenders sits on a beer barrel clasping an upraised knee with both hands while she leans slightly back Though not Germany's first sound film it was at the time the most prestigious and expensive by far Sternberg had been lured back from Hollywood and together with acting star Emil Jannings and producer Erich Pommer he set about making an adaptation of Heinrich Mann's novel Professor Unrat The result is a subtly claustrophobic study of a man's downfall which is a milestone in European cinema

Environmental Governance in Europe Rüdiger K.W. Wurzel, Anthony R. Zito, A. J. Jordan, 2013-01-01 This path breaking book written by three well known experts makes an extremely valuable contribution to the study of new environmental policy instruments as well as to much wider theoretical debates about governance policy innovation learning and transfer Drawing on an unrivalled comparative empirical study of five different jurisdictions it manages to make many new points about issues that many of us thought had already been settled Martin J. Nicke Free University of Berlin and former deputy chair German Advisory Council on the Environment Germany Much more than a study of environmental policy instruments this book ranges widely and authoritatively over the government to governance debate theories of policy change regulation policy transfer and policy learning Its lessons and conclusions are relevant and timely well beyond the European context of its case studies and it will be essential reading for public policy scholars everywhere for some time to come Jeremy Rayner University of Saskatchewan Canada This book represents a very rare achievement in that it combines detailed and up to the minute empirical analysis of environmental policy over the past four decades with a sophisticated discussion and critique of current theoretical issues in comparative and policy studies generally It unfolds with a keen eye towards understanding the temporal dimensions of policy dynamics both in the specific policy field examined but also in terms of testing key analytical concepts Taken as a whole it provides the most detailed empirical assessment to date of the general government to governance hypothesis with significant implications for policy and governance studies in general Michael Howlett Simon Fraser University Canada and National University of Singapore This book fills an important gap in the environmental governance literature addressing governance at a lower level of abstraction than other texts and examining how it plays out in relation to specific modes and instruments of governing It also contributes towards governance theory building efforts through the development of an empirically relevant analytical framework In so doing it provides a firm underpinning for assessing whether to what extent and in what ways there has been a transition from government towards governance in environmental policy Neil Gunningham Australian National University Theoretically sophisticated and empirically rich this book provides an overview of the introduction development and use of new policy instruments and new modes of environmental governance in the European context taking into account both national and European Union experiences This is a welcome addition to the field Miranda Schreurs

Environmental Policy Research Centre and Free University of Berlin Germany European governance has witnessed dramatic changes in recent decades By assessing the use of new environmental policy instruments in European Union countries including the United Kingdom Germany the Netherlands and Austria this timely book analyses whether traditional forms of top down government have given way to less hierarchical governance instruments which rely strongly on societal self steering and or market forces The authors provide important new theoretical insights as well as fresh empirical detail on why and in what form these instruments are being adopted within and across different levels of governance along with analysis of the often overlooked interactions between the instrument types Providing important new theoretical insights into the governance debate by combining institutionalist and policy learning transfer approaches this book will be invaluable for both undergraduate and postgraduate students The analytical insights as well as a thorough empirical assessment of the use of environmental policy instruments in practice will prove essential for environmental policy specialists practitioners
