Blue Velvet:

Violence and Mediation in Contemporary Culture Ronald Bogue, Marcel Cornis-Pope, 1996-01-01 Ten essays explore violence in relation to notions of difference representation and power and the role of mediation in providing communal space in which cultural differences can interplay without conflict Among the topics are the semiotics of windows and television screens gender relations in contemporary film and the image of Mormons in popular literature The fiction of Kafka Lu Xun Conrad Aiken Toni Morrison and Ronald Sukenick is also examined Annotation c by Book News Inc Portland Or

Differences that Matter Sara Ahmed, 1998-11-26 Differences That Matter challenges existing ways of theorising the relationship between feminism and postmodernism which ask is or should feminism be modern or postmodern Sara Ahmed suggests that postmodernism has been allowed to dictate feminist debates and calls instead for feminist theorists to speak back to postmodernism rather than simply speak on their relationship to it Such a speaking back involves a refusal to position postmodernism as a generalisable condition of the world and requires closer readings of what postmodernism is actually doing in a variety of disciplinary contexts Sara Ahmed hence examines constructions of postmodernism in relation to rights ethics subjectivity authorship meta fiction and film

New York Magazine, 1986-09-29 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

The Impossible David Lynch Todd McGowan, 2007 Todd McGowan studies Lynch s talent for blending the bizarre and the normal to emphasise the odd nature of normality itself In Lynch s movies fantasy becomes a means through which the viewer is encouraged to build a revolutionary relationship with the world

Illustrated Catalogue of Drawing Instruments John Lyles, 2019-12-20 Originally developed in 1993 for an auction of an Architect s private collection of over 1 500 drawing instruments and calculators this extensive book is one of a few comprehensive references available for comparative study of these instruments The original collection was assembled over a twelve year period from sources in the US and Europe Each instrument is listed in a scientific format for comparative evaluation and identification An abbreviations table supports this approach Profusely illustrated with 113 color photos and 61 highly organized text pages The Subject Index has over 400 individual references dissecting this impressive collective of instruments from the 18th C thru the mid 20th century Instruments are categorized by Maker Country Period of Manufacture and function Different instrument makers and suppliers are referenced to over 300 individual items The four page Table of Contents provides a logical and extremely useful subjective summary of the catalog contents so that whatever the instrument or drawing tool its location can be easily found The photographs were taken with the idea of showing these important instruments in a comparative array Researchers and collectors will find this a valuable resource These instruments represent a most prolific period of time in our history of invention and advancements in technology Computers are the new tools which demand a new pace of design and documentation They leave behind the centuries of drawing instruments that were the connection from the hand to the paper
