Grand Finales Susan Gubar, 2025-06-10 One of our most formidable literary critics explores how nine women artists flourished creatively in their final acts In 2008 academic and scholar Susan Gubar was told by a trusted oncologist that she had only a few years left to live Though she outlived that dire prognosis this brush with mortality refocused her attention on the boons of a longevity she did not expect to experience She began to think In the last years of our lives can we shape and change our creative capabilities The resulting volume Grand Finales answers this question with a resounding yes Despite the losses generally associated with aging quite a few

writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers have managed to extend and repurpose their creative energies Gubar spotlights very creative old ladies writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers from the past and in our times Each of Grand Finales nine riveting chapters features women artists George Eliot Colette Georgia O Keeffe Isak Dinesen Marianne Moore Louise Bourgeois Mary Lou Williams Gwendolyn Brooks and Katherine Dunham who transformed the last stage of existence into a rousing conclusion Gubar draws on their late lives and works to suggest that seniority can become a time of reinvention and renewal With pizzazz bravado and geezer machismo she counters the discrediting of elderly women and clarifies the environments relationships activities and attitudes that sponsor a creative old age Library Journal ,1993

The Library Journal ,1993 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Make Room for Dreams Haim Gordon,1989-06 Make Room for Dreams examines Zionism from both a philosophical and practical point of view This in depth study reviews and evaluates the notion that Zionism has become a way of enlisting political or economic support for Israel and is no longer seen as a movement that should seek ways to realize humane or spiritual goals The discussion focuses on the concept of Zionism as the return of the Jewish people to the land of Israel a return that must be accompanied by a changing of certain basic attitudes concerning the Jews mode of being in the world The manner of blending existentialism with political thought is seen in relation to the Biblical experience and it is shown that Zionist challenges must draw their sustenance from the ability to read the Bible with existential and political awareness It presents five specific challenges for Zionism in Israel citing concrete examples from life in Israel and some examples from the history of Zionism The current situation is also described and precise determinations for responding to the challenges are woven into each chapter Also included is a thought provoking summary of the manner in which a more authentic Jewish existence can be lived in Israel This scholarly work is the first to deal with the complex issues behind the Zionist movement in present day Israel and will provide a valuable resource for philosophers political scientists and students in Jewish studies The Art of Arts Anita Albus,2000 There was a time five hundred years ago when science was regarded as an art and art as a science And in the contest between the senses the ear through which we had previously received all knowledge and the word of God was conquered by the eye which would henceforth be king A new breed of painters aimed to reconcile the world of the senses with that of the mind and their goal was to conceal themselves in the details and vanish away like God A new way of perceiving was born Anita Albus describes the birth and evolution of trompe l oeil painting in oils in the fifteenth sixteenth and seventeenth centuries focusing her attention on works by northern European artists both major and minor As a scholar she stands in the tradition of Panofsky as a painter she is able to see things others have not yet perceived as a storyteller she skillfully describes abstract notions in a vivid and exciting way Like the multilayered technique of the Old Masters her method assumes an ability to distinguish between the different levels as well as a talent for synthesizing them The first part of the book is devoted to the visibility of the invisible in the art of Jan van Eyck his visual effects perspective artistic technique and philosophy The second and third parts are taken up with descriptions of the genres of forest landscape still life and forest floor In the midst of butterflies bumblebees and dragonflies Vladimir Nabokov emerges as final witness to the survival in literature of all that was condemned to vanish from the fine arts After a glimpse into the continuing presence of the past and some conjectures as to the future the book s final part throws fresh light on the colored grains of the hand ground pigments that were lost when artists materials began to be commercially manufactured in the nineteenth century The Art of Arts is thus both a dazzling cultural history and the story of two explosive inventions the so called third dimension of space through perspective and the shockingly vivid colors of revolutionary oil paints Albus makes abundantly clear how taken together these breakthroughs not only created a new art but altered forever our perception of the world Manusya ,2005
