Angela Of Foligno Complete Works:

Complete Works Angela (of Foligno),1993 Angela of Foligno c 1248 1309 is one of the most outstanding representatives of the Franciscan and Christian mystical tradition Her Book published here in English for the first time describes her passionate love affair with the suffering God man and her teachings in the form of letters and exhortations to her spiritual progeny

Angela of Foligno Angela (van Foligno.),1993 The Spiritual Franciscans David Burr,2001-10-01 Winner of the 2002 John Gilmary Shea Prize and the 2002 Howard R Marraro Prize of the American Catholic Historical Association When Saint Francis of Assisi died in 1226 he left behind an order already struggling to maintain its identity As the Church called upon Franciscans to be bishops professors and inquisitors their style of life began to change Some in the order lamented this change and insisted on observing the strict poverty practiced by Francis himself Others were more open to compromise Over time this division evolved into a genuine rift as those who argued for strict poverty were marginalized within the order In this book David Burr offers the first comprehensive history of the so called Spiritual Franciscans a protest movement within the Franciscan order Burr shows that the movement existed more or less as a loyal opposition in the late thirteenth century but by 1318 Pope John XXII and leaders of the order had combined to force it beyond the boundaries of legitimacy At that point the loyal opposition turned into a heretical movement and recalcitrant friars were sent to the stake Although much has been written about individual Spiritual Franciscan leaders there has been no general history of the movement since 1932 Few people are equipped to tackle the voluminous documentary record and digest the sheer mass of research generated by Franciscan scholars in the last century Burr one of the world s leading authorities on the Franciscans has given us a book that will define the field for years to come

Tradition and Transformation in Christian Art C.A. Tsakiridou,2018-09-03 Tradition and Transformation in Christian Art approaches tradition and transculturality in religious art from an Orthodox perspective that defines tradition as a dynamic field of exchanges and synergies between iconographic types and their variants Relying on a new ontology of iconographic types it explores one of the most significant ascetical and eschatological Christian images the King of Glory Man of Sorrows This icon of the dead living Christ originated in Byzantium migrated west and was promoted in the New World by Franciscan and Dominican missions Themes include tensions between Byzantine and Latin spiritualities of penance and salvation the participation of the body and gender in deification and the theological plasticity of the Christian imaginary Primitivist tendencies in Christian eschatology and modernism place avant garde interest in New Mexican santos and Greek icons in tradition

Desirable Belief Margaret D. Kamitsuka,2024-09-10 Desirable Belief A Theology of Eros is a work of critical and constructive theology informed by the phenomenon of erotic love Within the Christian tradition passion has long been associated with sinful lust incurring shaming and accusations of narcissism Contemporary theologies of eros on the other hand extol sexual desire as God given even sacred This book eschews these two extremes through an examination of the complexities of love and desire as narrated in biblical texts allegorized by church fathers manifested in the lives of mystics analyzed in psychodynamic theory and depicted in poetry literature and Christian art The volume pairs writers on love as different as Augustine and Jane Austen or Angela of Foligno and Simone de Beauvoir Desirable Belief argues that eros is human and as such informs the Chalcedonian claim of Christ as fully God and fully human A christological perspective that takes eros into account in turn affects the doctrine of the bodily ascension of Christ the nature of resurrected bodies in heaven and whether trinitarian impassibility is still a coherent concept

Complete Works Angela (of Foligno),1993 Blessed Angela of Foligno c 1248 1309 while not widely known is one of the most outstanding most brilliant representatives of 13th century Italian mysticism In this excellent translation Lachance provides an comprehensive introduction that summarizes Angela s inner journey spirituality and influence that will reach readers of medieval and women s visionary literature feminists and historians as well as its usual devotional reading audience Amazon Inner Experience Georges Bataille,2014-07-22 Outlines a mystical theology and experience of the sacred founded on the absence of god Originally published in 1943 Inner Experience is the single most significant work by one of the twentieth century s most influential writers It outlines a mystical theology and experience of the sacred founded on the absence of god Bataille calls Inner Experience a narrative of despair but also describes it as a book wherein profundity and passion go tenderly hand in hand Herein he says The mind moves in a strange world where anguish and ecstasy take shape Bataille s search for experience begins where religion philosophy science and literature leave off where doctrines dogmas methods and the arts collapse His method of meditation outlined and documented here commingles horror and delight Laughter intoxication eroticism poetry and sacrifice are pursued not as ends in and of themselves but as means of access to a sovereign realm of inner experience This new translation is the first to include Method of Meditation and Post Scriptum 1953 the supplementary texts Bataille added to create the first volume of his Summa Atheologica This edition also offers the full notes and annotations from the French edition of Bataille s Oeuvres Compl tes along with an incisive introductory essay by Stuart Kendall that situates the work historically biographically and philosophically The Complete
