Angels Of Mercy:

Angel of Mercy Lurlene McDaniel, 2001-07 Eighteen year old Heather travels as a volunteer to Africa where she provides direly needed medical help in Kenya and Uganda and hopes to act as God's hands on Earth Angels of Mercy Betsy Kuhn, 1999-10 Relates the experiences of World War II Army nurses who brought medical skills courage and cheer to hospitals throughout Europe North Africa and the Pacific Angels of Mercy Mary Paulinus Oakes, Ignatius Sumner, 1998 Angels of Mercy is a powerful testament to the special gift that religious women are to our church our society and our history The Mercy Sisters whose history is chronicled in this book is compelling reading about heroic women providing Christian service under hostile and life threatening circumstances In this eyewitness historical account of the Civil War and the outbreak of yellow fever readers will get to meet heroes and saints who not only served the needs of many in their time but provide inspiration and encouragement for the ages to come back cover Angels of Mercy William Seraile, 2011 William Seraile uncovers the history of the colored orphan asylum founded in New York City in 1836 as the nation's first orphanage for African American children It is a remarkable institution that is still in the forefront aiding children Although no longer an orphanage in its current incarnation as Harlem Dowling West Side Center for Children and Family Services it maintains the principles of the women who organized it nearly 200 years ago The agency weathered three wars two major financial panics a devastating fire during the 1863 Draft Riots several epidemics waves of racial prejudice and severe financial difficulties to care for orphaned neglected and delinquent children Eventually financial support would come from some of New York's finest families including the Jays Murrays Roosevelts Macys and Astors While the white female managers and their male advisers were dedicated to uplifting these black children the evangelical mainly Quaker founding managers also exhibited the extreme paternalistic views endemic at the time accepting the advice or support of the African American community only grudgingly It was frank criticism in 1913 from W E B Du Bois that highlighted the conflict between the orphanage and the community it served and it wasn't until 1939 that it hired the first black trustee More than 15 000 children were raised in the orphanage and throughout its history letters and visits have revealed that hundreds if not thousands of old boys and girls looked back with admiration and respect at the home that nurtured them throughout their formative years Weaving together African American history with a unique history of New York City this is not only a painstaking study of a previously unsung institution of black history but a unique window onto complex racial dynamics during a period when many failed to recognize equality among all citizens as a worthy purpose Touched by Angels of Mercy Laura Lagana, 2001-10-30 Touched by Angels of Mercy contains small doses of genuine life from nurses patients and caregivers that touch the heart and foster healing This collection of short stories and poems interspersed with tasteful cartoons contains helpful resource information as well as a brief biography of each contributing author Many of the works in this collection offer a glimpse into the nurse patient relationship as seen through the eyes of the patient nurse or family member Some of the stories reveal caregiving

scenarios taken from brief moments in history behind prison walls or even on a golf course Anyone may be labeled an Angel of Mercy This term is not exclusive to nurses Our world needs the healing angels who come to us in a variety of forms when and where we least expect them At some time in our lives each one of us will encounter illness pain and death Along with it will come the need for a helping hand and the gentle caring touch of an angel of mercy Everyone has the ability to be courageous tenacious and loving When people are hurting whether from illness injury or other reasons they have the instinctive need to be touched and nurtured People also have the need and desire to share their experiences with others This process of sharing is frequently healthful and therapeutic The strength knowledge and inspiration that comes from recounting personal life and death experiences with one another stimulates healing The profession of nursing deals with the prevention of illness as well as the care and rehabilitation of the sick Although it takes a special person to answer this calling today's nurses are vastly different from those of yesteryear The changing world of healthcare has created unique challenges and added pressures for nursing but it has also created new frontiers In addition there is a growing number of caregivers in our society Caregivers often feel isolated apprehensive exhausted and overwhelmed They desperately need relief as well as ongoing support Nurses and caregivers reach out and become angels for others They are compassionate intelligent and caring beings that provide hands on care to help the sick to heal or comfort them as they die Nurses and caregivers are not invincible they also need to take care of themselves The need to be touched by another and to share personal experiences are universal human requirements The strength knowledge and inspiration that comes from recounting personal life and death experiences fosters healing Wounds heal from the inside out so does the heart and soul Writing these stories has been a therapeutic experience for our authors and for some an extremely difficult task It is our hope that by reading and sharing these real life personal experiences you too will be touched inspired and healed
