Angry River Passport Student:

The Chinese Students' Monthly, 1925      Hani Janet Smith, Beauregard Tromp, 2011-01-18 Chris Hani's assassination in 1993 gave rise to one of South Africa's great imponderables: if he had survived, what impact would he have had on politics and government in South Africa? More pointedly, could this charismatic leader have risen to become president of the country? Hani was a hero of South Africa's liberation, a communist party leader and Umkhonto we Sizwe chief of staff who was both intellectual and fighter, a man who could inspire an army but carried a book of poetry in his backpack. Hani led MK into its earliest battles and carved a formidable reputation as a thinker, debater, and peacemaker. Hani: A Life Too Short tells the story of Hani's life from his childhood in rural Transkei and education at Fort Hare University to the controversial Memorandum of 1969, the crisis in the ANC camps in Angola in the 1980s, and the heady dawn of freedom. Drawing on interviews and the recollections of those who knew him, this vividly written book provides a detailed account of the life of a great South African.

Arthur Schlesinger Jr.      A Passport to China Lucy Farrar Soothill, 1931 Author's account of her long sojourn among the Chinese.      Midnight in Moscow M. D. Johnson, 2021-05-25 The ISIS Project is historically inspired fiction.

The characters in this, the second of an intended five-part series, are wholly the product of my imagination. The newspapers and features cited in this work are also fictional; any non-fictional references are cited by source. It is alleged by various and sundry criminologists that there are over thirty Russian Crime Syndicates in the United States, centered in every major city including Baltimore, Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, Miami, New York, Philadelphia, Portland, San Francisco, and Seattle. As crime festers in an environment where individual freedom is suppressed, only time will tell to what extent the Russian Mafia will influence the American lifestyle and economy.      As I Was Burying Comrade Stalin Arkady Polishchuk, 2020-05-11

Arkady Polishchuk came of age in Stalin's Russia in the turbulent times before, during, and after World War II. His love for the Soviet dictator persisted for years until Polishchuk, a 19-year-old Jew, was not admitted to the university. In 1952, he learned about the preparations for mass deportation of Jews to Siberia. He celebrated Stalin's death in 1953, but state oppression dominated his life as before. As a young reporter for the Kostroma regional newspaper, he met with destitute plowmen, teenage milkmaids, and former prisoners turned woodcutters and wrote about them. When his satirical flair outraged a Communist Party secretary, the KGB initiated a political case against him, and he fled to avoid persecution. His memoir describes his painstaking journey toward mental and spiritual liberation.      Time, 1966      The Independent, 1878
