Minding Animals in the Old and New Worlds Steven Wagschal,2018-10-16 Minding Animals in the Old and New Worlds employs current research in cognitive science and the philosophy of animal cognition to explore how humans have understood non human animals in the Iberian world from the Middle Ages through the early modern period Using texts from European and Indigenously informed sources Steven Wagschal argues that people tend to conceptualize the minds of animals in ways that reflect their own uses for the animal the manner in which they interact with the animal and the place in which the animal lives Often this has little if anything to do with the actual cognitive abilities of the animal However occasionally early authors made surprisingly accurate assumptions about the thoughts and feelings of animals Wagschal explores a number of ways in which culture and human cognition interact including the utility of anthropomorphism the symbolic use of animals in medieval Christian texts attempts at understanding the minds of animals in Spain s early modern farming and hunting books the effect of novelty on animal conceptualizations in New World histories and how Cervantes navigated the forms of anthropomorphism that preceded him to create the first embodied animal minds in fiction

Cervantes and the Early Modern Mind Isabel Jaén,Julien Jacques Simon,2021-08-30 This book explores the work of Cervantes in relation to the ideas about the mind that circulated in early modern Europe and were propelled by thinkers such as Juan Luis Vives, Juan Huarte de San Juan, Oliva Sabuco, Andrés Laguna, Andrés Velásquez, Marsilio Ficino, and Gómez Pereira. The editors bring together humanists and scientists, literary scholars and doctors whose interdisciplinary research integrates diverse types of sources: philosophical and medical treatises, natural histories, rhetoric manuals, pharmacopoeias, etc. alongside Cervantes's works to examine themes and areas including emotion, human development, animal vs. human consciousness, pathologies of the mind, and mind-altering substances. Their chapters trace the cognitive themes and points of inquiry that Cervantes shares with other early modern thinkers, showing how he both echoes and contributes to early modern views of the mind.

Macmillan Mil maravillas: lvl. 4. Primer. En marcha, 1986

Estos son los tiempos de callar Pineda Cupa, Héctor Luis, 2024-04-12. Tunja, Nuevo Reino de Granada, a o de 1713. A las manos de la monja clarisa de velo negro y escritora sor Francisca Josefa de la Concepción de Castillo, 1671-1742, llega el libro de cuentas de su cuñado. En ese año su hermana Juana Ángela de Castillo y Toledo ingresa al convento de Santa Clara la Real como religiosa. Una vez muerto su esposo, el gobernador José de Enciso y Cárdenas, para entonces Juan Manuel Romero, jesuita, santafereño, es confesor de la autora neogranadina. En el cruce de ambos acontecimientos, insospechadamente, se consolida el silencio de la escritura, pues es bastante probable que sor Josefa obtuviera el hoy llamado Cuaderno de Enciso por vía de su hermana y las obras de sor Juana Inés de la Cruz por vía de su confesor. Ambos artefactos, en definitiva, resultan fundamentales para ese silencioso encuentro que se gesta entre la pluma y la hoja de papel. Si el orden colonial, instaurado por la empresa viril de la Corona española en el Nuevo Mundo, habla con el ruido de su pretendida verticalidad, el cuerpo de la mujer responde más que con el silencio de una sumisión, ejemplar con el de una desobediencia horizontal. Pasar de un modus loquendi a un modus tacendi, o manera de callar, constituye la operación historiográfica que emprende Francisca Josefa en sus Afectos espirituales. A través del silencio, la escritora de Santa Clara la Real busca intervenir ciertos lugares sociales asignados a lo femenino, determinados repertorios devocionales heteronormados y las prácticas letradas de reescritura y traducción. La invitación de este estudio al lector y la lectora de la actualidad es resignificar sus imaginarios en torno a la vida conventual femenina de la temprana modernidad por medio de una lectura transgresora del libro de cuentas, el devocionario y la revelación místico-ascética. Parafraseando a la monja clarisa que sea el silencio el que hable.
