Townsite Settlement and Dispossession in the Cherokee Nation, 1866-1907 Brad A. Bays, 2018-10-24 In response to the influx of white settlement after the Civil War the Cherokee nation devised a regional development plan which allowed whites to establish farms and build towns while reinforcing Cherokee tribal sovereignty over the territory The presence of sizeable towns and numerous villages presented a legal conundrum for Congress when it legislated away Cherokee sovereignty at the turn of the century By 1898 tens of thousands of whites owned residential and commercial properties worth millions of dollars in Cherokee Nation towns but every lot was owned by the Cherokee people

The federal government created a program to transfer legal ownership of town lots to white occupants but poor implementation of the program allowed individuals to subvert the law for their own gain The author explores the subject using primary documentation of such diverse sources as traveler s reports land records tribal and federal correspondence and accounts of Cherokee and white settlers Descriptive statistics and analytical mapping of historical data provide additional facets to the analysis Also includes 50 maps Ph D dissertation University of Nebraska Lincoln 1996 revised with new preface introduction afterword Index Bibliography Library of Universal History Israel Smith Clare,1896 From the Congress of Vienna to the Berlin congress Israel Smith Clare,1899 From the Congress of Vienna to the Berlin Congress ,1898 Postal Riders and Raiders W.
