Army Service Corps 1902 1918:

Army Service Corps 1902 - 1918 Michael Young, Mike Young, 2012-03-30 Ally Slopers Cavalry may well have been a music hall joke in Victorian times but the re organised Army Service Corps ASC came into its own in the First World War providing essential support to the British Army in every theatre of war With so little published material available even our leading historians have only the sketchiest idea of the logistic network behind the front line and the activities of the men and women involved This freshly researched book by the last curator of the RASC RCT Museum provides a wealth of new and fascinating information on what became eventually a 326 000 strong corps along with 120 photographs and 21 annexes of archive material The ASC s contribution to the 1914 1918 war has been ignored for too long until now Postcards of the Army Service Corps 1902 - 1918 Michael Young, 2016-09-30 Postcards of the Army Service Corps 1902 1918 presents the early history of the Army Service Corps of the British Army by means of a unique collection of some 540 images mainly contemporary postcards The conduct of war changed dramatically in the late Victorian era after the debacle in the Crimean War and humiliating setbacks in the Boer War Commanders realized the vital importance of logistics in any campaign The formation of the ASC marked a significant milestone in the modernization of the Army and it was fortunate that by the outbreak of The Great War the Corps was well established in the Order of Battle The development and introduction of mechanical transport was to play a vital role throughout the 1914 1918 war and the ASC was pivotal to this The images displayed in this superb book represent life in the ASC at a crucial period of its history They show the personal side of soldiering as opposed to the more formal official perspective All have been collected and captioned by the author who is the foremost expert on the Corps history The result is a stunning array of images that capture military life as it was over 100 years ago Order of Battle of the British Army 1914 Richard A Rinaldi, 2008-07-15 A complete Order of Battle for the British Army in 1914 470 content pages A Soldier of the Empire Pt2 Lawrence Brodley, 101-01-01 Benjamin William Badcock my Grandfather was an ordinary Englishman Yet like millions of others of his generation he lived through extraordinary times In 1880 the year of his birth between twenty five and thirty million people lived in Great Britain yet its industry and economy dominated the world and its Queen Empress Victoria held more than a quarter of its 1 5 2 billion population in thrall through her vast navy and tiny army But the following year in 1881 a handful of Boer farmers threw down a challenge that reverberated across Africa and the world and set a pattern for the 20th Century that would lead to the dissolution of the old imperial world order and ultimately to the break up of the British Empire all within the lifetime of one soldier my grandfather Benjamin William Badcock Had you met Ben you would have found him to be like millions of other British citizens of his time oblivious of the fact that he was and they were making history But though not a historical figure he was nevertheless a participant in and a witness to many great events and historical moments living as he did through the greatest period of industrial development and socio economic change that Britain or the world had ever experienced Son of a

Devonport soldier his namesake Benjamin Badcock Ben was born in a tented Summer camp at Platras on the side of a Cyprus mountain At three months he was jolted down its mountainside in a donkey pannier as the regimental train of his father s regiment the 2nd Battalion 20th Foot The East Devons marched to Larnaca In the following year 1881 the family and regiment would move to Malta and from thence remustered as Lancashire Fusiliers to Ireland in Royal Naval sailing ships That voyage from Malta to Ireland took 3 4 weeks to accomplish depending on the winds a journey which 70 years later by the miracle of air travel would reduce to as many hours as it had taken weeks before a miracle which by the time of his death in 1964 Ben himself had witnessed evolving from Colonel Sam Cody s tentative stringbag flights at Farnborough in 1910 through the development of aerial warfare in two world wars and its metamorphosis into the jet fighters V bombers and airliners of the 1950 s and 60 s Much of this he witnessed from his back garden in Aldershot as the myriad prototypes circled and dived in the then ALL British Farnborough air shows held annually each September Those changes however had been bought at great human cost as a result of clashing imperial egos and conflicting political and socio economic imperatives the price of which is still being paid in continuous political conflict and instability across the globe and in particular in the Middle East conflict in which British armed forces have been constantly and tirelessly involved both at home in Ireland and overseas And it was in these conflicts in one way or another that the Badcock family were involved from 1867 to 1969 the zenith of which service culminated in the award to my grandfather Benjamin William Badcock later Baddock of the Military Cross MC The Medaille Militaire and his three Mentions in Despatches during WW 1 the Great War or Big Scrap as Ben called it But to talk of that gets ahead of ourselves for prior to that my Grandfather would first have to be raised to take the Queen s shilling be trained and blooded for the task in the 2nd Boer War and to meet and marry Mabel Lawrence and with her to raise a family of their own And that is a story in its own right

Women's Forage Corps Taken from History of the Army Service Corps 1902-1918 , The Great War and the British Empire Michael J.K. Walsh,Andrekos Varnava,2016-11-25 In 1914 almost one quarter of the earth s surface was British When the empire and its allies went to war in 1914 against the Central Powers history s first global conflict was inevitable It is the social and cultural reactions to that war and within those distant often overlooked societies which is the focus of this volume From Singapore to Australia Cyprus to Ireland India to Iraq and around the rest of the British imperial world further complexities and interlocking themes are addressed offering new perspectives on imperial and colonial history and theory as well as art music photography propaganda education pacifism gender class race and diplomacy at the end of the pax Britannica

Searching for Pop Michael R. Brookbank,2018-08-21 At the age of 43 Thomas Brookbank volunteered to join the army in September 1914 just weeks after the start of the war and when the wounded from the first encounters with the German army at Mons and Le Cateau were arriving back in England There was nothing special about Tom Brookbank He was a painter and a decorator by trade but he was swept along in the surge of patriotism that drove hundreds of thousands of ordinary men and women to respond to the Kitchener s call for the raising of a great volunteer army an enterprise that most military men of the time friend and foe alike regarded as a ludicrous waste of time and money This much was known by family legend together with knowledge that he had gone to Italy in November 1917 with the 41st Division in response to the near collapse of the Italian army at Caporetto that he ended the war in Belgium with this Division Tom Brookbank need not have volunteered at all He was too old to be fighting a soldier and was well over the age group that Kitchener was calling for but there was also a need for men in the support services behind the lines the men of the Army Services Corps and this is where Tom Brookbank and fellow men like him ended up Early research showed that he did not start the war with the 41st Division so what happened to him what did he do and where did he go Searching for Pop is the story of a grandson s search for the answers to what he did and where he went between the time he volunteered and his discharge at the end of the war It illustrates what might be achieved from a very limited amount of initial knowledge by perseverance and the use of the records available in National Archives *Biographical Register of the Officers and Graduates of the U.
