That's My House Christie Amoyo,2022-04-30 For so long I thought God didn't care about my family's finances Boy was I wrong As I read the Bible about His provision for us there came a shift in my head and then in my heart I realized that He is our true provider God has no limits and we need to believe in His provision for us in every area of our lives No dream or vision is too big for Him and you'll never find out what He actually wants you to do with your finances until you ask Him Then you will be amazed at how He uses it to answer your prayers and the prayers of others We have to start somewhere It takes many little steps for us to see the fullness of what He wants for us Your finances can be a turning point in your relationship with God As you physically take steps to trust Him you will see a physical manifestation of the harvest of blessings in your life
