Around Nineteen Eighty One Academic Feminist Literary Theory:

Paperbound Books in Print, 1992 Theory in Its Feminist Travels Katie King, 1994 Katie King examines the development of U S feminist theory tracing its inception rocky development and internecine struggles She argues that the subject matter of women s studies is cultural studies This book should definitively alter the map of contemporary feminist theory in the U S and abroad Donna Landry Communities of Cultural Value Philip Goldstein, 2001-01-01 Philip Goldstein is fast establishing himself as the doyen of reception study a discipline that assumes that the reader s interpretive practices explain a text s import In his latest work Communities of Cultural Value Goldstein delves again into the realm of literary criticism painting an absorbing picture of the changing nature of a growing more diversified readership and its challenge to professional literary study Goldstein s PostMarxist approach investigates how interpretive communities govern the reader s practices through lucid case studies that analyze the reception of texts and authors ranging from Jane Austen to John Le CarrZ Communities of Cultural Values is an important addition to the continuing debate over art s aesthetic autonomy and the role of literary criticism in the 1990s and it will be most valuable to readers seeking to chart the changing socio historical condition of literary study Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1992 The Social Life of Criticism Kimberly J Stern, 2016-10-17 The Social Life of Criticism explores the cultural representation of the female critic in Victorian Britain focusing especially on how women writers imagined themselves in literary essays periodical reviews and even works of fiction as participants in complex networks of literary exchange Kimberly Stern proposes that in response to the male collectivity prominently featured in critical writings female critics adopted a social and sociological understanding of the profession often reimagining the professional networks and communities they were so eager to join This engaging study begins by looking at the eighteenth century when critical writing started to assume the institutional and generic structures we associate with it today and examines a series of case studies that illuminate how women writers engaged with the forms of intellectual sociability that defined nineteenth century criticism including critical dialogue the club the salon and the publishing firm In doing so it clarifies the fascinating rhetorical and political debates surrounding the figure of the female critic and charts how women writers worked both within and against professional communities Ultimately Stern contends that gender was a formative influence on critical practice from the very beginning presenting the history of criticism as a history of gender politics While firmly grounded in literary studies The Social Life of Criticism combines an attention to historical context with a deep investment in feminist scholarship social theory and print culture The book promises to be of interest not only to professional academics and graduate students in nineteenth century literature but also to scholars in a wide range of disciplines including literature intellectual history cultural studies gender theory and sociology Striking at the Joints John V. Knapp, 1996 This book uses a trio of contemporary psychological paradigms family systems subject object differentiation and depression and personality theory to discuss six works of fiction The authors of the texts being analyzed are John Fowles D H Lawrence George Orwell Robert Pirsig Henry Roth and John Steinbeck The author employs these three psychological approaches in order to gain further insight into the psychological literary criticisms of these major works Students and scholars of both psychology and literature will find this a useful work Contents Psychology Literary Theory and Character An Introduction Literature and Psychology Synergistic Transaction or Solitary Confinement Family Systems in Literature D H Lawrence s Sons and Lovers and Henry Roth s Call it Sleep Scientific Personality in American Literature Depression Life Span Development and Fiction Orwell s Keep the Aspidistra Flying and John Fowles s The Mangus Teaching Literature and Psychology in an Interdisciplinary Context Conclusion References Around 1981 Jane Gallop,2012 A clear eyed and comprehensive history of feminist literary criticism In a novel approach the inquiry is structured around anthologies of feminist criticism twelve important texts that have had a wide impact on more than a decade of scholarship In reading an anthology as a whole the author identifies a central hegemonic voice which would organise all the voices into a unity and then explores the resistance within that volume to such a unity Weight is placed behind these internal differences as a wedge against the centrist drive This book brilliantly illuminates the dilemma of the feminist critic divided by her allegiance to both feminism and literary studies Books in Print ,1994 Nineteenth-Century Literature Criticism, Volume 181 Kathy D. Darrow,2007-05 A convenient source of critical commentary on the careers and works of acclaimed authors who died between 1800 and 1899 A cumulative title index is published separately included in subscription Meridian ,1992 TLS, the Times Literary Supplement ,1992 Dispositio ,2000 Feminism and the Technological Fix Carol A. Stabile,1994 The quantum leaps in technology in the twentieth century have provoked a profound shift in the way we think about our bodies Genetic engineering reproductive technology the advent of virtual reality all fundamentally affect basic categories of self and gender The future can look bright or apocalyptic depending on where you stand and crucially who is selling that vision to you Carol A Stabile argues that the two traditional responses of technophobia or technomania are simply inadequate for the choices facing us today She charts the development of these two responses across a wide cultural terrain from ecofeminism s uncritical celebration of women and nature to foetal imaging struggles over women and the military and the advent of cyborg politics Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1997 Guide to American Studies Resources ,2000 America, History and Life ,1993 The American Humanities Index Stephen H. Goode,1995 Book Review Digest ,1996 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1992 Twentieth-century Literary Criticism Gale Research Company,1985 Excerpts from criticism of the works of novelists poets playwrights and other creative writers 1900 1960
