

CHORDS PERFORMED AS ARPEGGIOS

The diagram illustrates the concept of performing a chord as an arpeggio. It is presented in a 4/4 time signature on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs).

- Chord: The first measure shows a triad chord (C-E-G) in the treble clef and a triad chord (F-A-C) in the bass clef. The label "Chord" is written above the treble staff.
- Arpeggio: The second measure shows the same two triads, but with a yellow wavy vertical line passing through them, indicating they are to be played as arpeggios. The label "Arpeggio" is written above the treble staff.
- Played as: The third measure shows the chord's notes (C, E, G, F, A, C) written as individual eighth notes in the treble clef and quarter notes in the bass clef. A red arrow points from the "Arpeggio" section to this section. The label "Played as" is written above the treble staff.
