Art And Craft Pottery And Ceramics:

The Craft and Art of Clay Susan Peterson, Jan Peterson, 2003 Widely considered to be the most comprehensive introduction to ceramics available this book contains numerous step by step illustrations of various ceramic techniques to guide the beginner as well as inspirational ceramic pieces from contemporary potters from around the world For the more experienced ceramist there is a wealth of technical detail on things like glaze formulas and temperature conversions which make the book an ideal reference To quote one review I am a studio potter and would not be without it The fourth edition has been updated to include profiles of key ceramists who have influenced the field new material on marketing ceramics including using the internet more on the use of computers added coverage of paperclays using gold and alternative glazes

Fired by Ideals Suzanne Baizerman, Lynn Downey, John Toki, Oakland Museum of California, 2000 The Arts and Crafts Movement exerted a profound influence on early twentieth century America not only in the applied and decorative arts but also in the area of social reform Standing at this intersection of art and reform were American art potteries that taught ceramics skills to working class women as a means of securing income restoring health and or uplifting the spirit Like its better known and more successful predecessors the Marblehead Pottery in Massachusetts the Newcomb Pottery in New Orleans and the Paul Revere Pottery in Boston home of the Saturday Evening Girls the Arequipa Pottery in Fairfax California had fascinating origins and it produced distinctive wares that today are prized by collectors Fired by Ideals Arequipa Pottery and the Arts Crafts Movement tells the story of the Arequipa Sanatorium and Pottery whose roots lie in the 1906 San Francisco earthquake and fire The dust and smoke from the disaster prompted an outbreak of tuberculosis which afflicted working girls in particular In 1911 a progressive physician Dr Philip King Brown founded a treatment center in rural Marin County north of San Francisco where these women could get the rest and medical care they needed as well as engage in a therapeutic and marketable pursuit the manufacture of art pottery In addition to its engaging historical narrative supported by dozens of vintage photographs the book employs technical illustrations and beautiful full color reproductions to examine the production process at Arequipa and the types of pottery made there What Makes a Potter Janet Koplos, 2019-10-28 Why are people still handmaking utilitarian pottery in the 21st century Doesn't industrial production take care of all our storage and cooking and serving needs Yet in all corners of the US pottery is being discovered studied developed produced sold collected used displayed preserved and passed down Answers to these questions are vividly realized in the words of potters themselves funny philosophical intense and inspiring life narratives captured by Janet Koplos an award winning art critic who has followed American studio ceramics for the last four decades The depth and breadth of this book is unprecedented in American craft history Fifty individuals or pairs of potters offer their experiences their thoughts and their lessons learned When art is at home in the kitchen dining room or living room as is the case with functional pottery the impact on our lives can be profound Pottery and Ceramics Joanna Wissinger, 1994 Since its birth at the turn of the century the Arts and Crafts style with its uncompromising workmanship and simple elegance has enhanced home design Today the genre is experiencing a dramatic renaissance and its admirers are bringing the timeless beauty of the Arts and Crafts style into their homes with renewed enthusiasm Pottery and Ceramics illustrates just two exciting facets of the movement taking the reader on a compelling inspirational and previously unexplored visual journey American Art Pottery Alice Cooney Frelinghuysen, Martin Eidelberg, Adrienne Spinozzi, 2018-09-25 p p1 margin 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px font 14 0px Verdana At the height of the Arts and Crafts era in Europe and the United States American ceramics were transformed from industrially produced ornamental works to handcrafted art pottery Celebrated ceramists such as George E Ohr Hugh C Robertson and M Louise McLaughlin and prize winning potteries including Grueby and Rookwood harnessed the potential of the medium to create an astonishing range of dynamic forms and experimental glazes Spanning the period from the 1870s to the 1950s this volume chronicles the history of American art pottery through more than three hundred works in the outstanding collection of Robert A Ellison Jr In a series of fascinating chapters the authors place these works in the context of turn of the century commerce design and social history Driven to innovate and at times fiercely competitive some ceramists strove to discover and patent new styles and aesthetics while others pursued more utopian aims establishing artist communities that promoted education and handwork as therapy Written by a team of esteemed scholars and copiously illustrated with sumptuous images this book imparts a full understanding of American art pottery while celebrating the legacy of a visionary collector Reading List on Arts and Crafts - Ceramics and Glassware Grosvenor Library, 1900
