Art and the Creative Unconscious Erich Neumann, 2026-01-20 A landmark account of how artistic expression arises from the collective unconscious This book brings together four essays by analytical psychologist Erich Neumann who explores the connections between creativity and the unconscious mind The archetypes of the collective unconscious he argues are intrinsically formless psychic components that take form in art The psychology of the individual in whom they appear the mediums of expression through which they pass and the time and place in which they occur mold their varying forms Neumann illustrates his theme in the first essay Leonardo da Vinci and the Mother Archetype in which he shows how the work of art and art itself were for Leonardo not ends in themselves but rather instruments and expressions of his inner life He follows with Art and Time A Note on Marc Chagall and Creative Man and Transformation Neumann sees the artist as a hero in isolation a tragically lonely figure whose mission is often to oppose the cultural canon of the age He demonstrates how the problem of form in modern art is linked to the chaos of the modern world and a fundamental change in how the individual seeks a life of dignity

The Archetypal Artist Mary Antonia Wood, 2022-03-24 In this thoughtful and revelatory book Wood explores enduring and powerful theories on art creativity and what Jung called the creative spirit in order to illuminate how artists can truly understand what it means to be a creator By bringing together insights on creativity from some of depth psychology's most iconic thinkers such as C G Jung James Hillman and Joseph

Campbell as well as featuring a selection of creators who have been influenced by these ideas such as Martha Graham Mary Oliver Stanley Kunitz and Ursula K Le Guin this book explores archetypal thought and the role of the artist in society This unique approach emphasizes the foundational need to understand and work with the unconscious forces that underpin a creative calling deepening our understanding of the transformational power of creativity and the vital role of the artist in the modern world Acting as a touchstone for inquiries into the nature of creativity and of the soul this enlightening book is perfect for artists and creators of all types as well as Jungian analysts and therapists and academics interested in the arts humanities and depth psychology

American Imago ,1964 Studies in psychoanalysis and culture Eros and Creativity in Russian Religious Renewal Anna Lisa Crone,2010-01-19 This book is a fascinating exploration of largely uncharted territory in the history of Russian religious thought Focusing on four brilliant representatives of the Russian religious renaissance of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Vladimir Solovyov Vasily Rozanov Nikolai Berdyaev and Boris Vysheslavtsev Anna Lisa Crone masterfully details their efforts which were at first quite independent of the work of Sigmund Freud and later highly critical of it to establish the importance of the sex drive in human life and to reinterpret Christianity as a religion of the flesh as well as the spirit Crone s use of the concept of sexual sublimation developed by Solovyov and Rozanov before Freud had described it and its connection with human creativity is the perfect foil for bringing out and clarifying the agreements and differences between the Russian religious thinkers on the one hand and the secular psychoanalysts such as Freud Carl Jung and Otto Rank on the other New light is cast on all these figures by Crone s adroit analyses which will also be welcomed by anyone interested in the roots of creativity the cultural significance of sexuality or the essence of Christianity James P Scanlan Professor Emeritus of Philosophy The Ohio State University University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Authors & titles University of California (System).
