Dublin A Grand Tour:

Dublin Jacqueline Wittenoom O'Brien, Desmond Guinness, 1994 The Grand Tour in the 18th Century Constantia Maxwell, 1938 Creating Irish Tourism William H. A. Williams, 2011 Based on the accounts of British and Anglo Irish travelers Creating Irish Tourism charts the development of tourism in Ireland from its origins in the mid eighteenth century to the country's emergence as a major European tourist destination a century later The work shows how the Irish tourist experience evolved out of the interactions among travel writers landlords and visitors with the peasants who as guides jarvies venders porters and beggars were as much a part of Irish tourism as the scenery itself Irish Monthly, 1912 The Essential Library for Irish Americans Morgan Llywelyn, 2000-03 An acclaimed novelist and heroine to many Irish Americans suggests a broad reading list of books about Ireland and its heritage and summarizes the experiences each book holds in store for the reader The books are listed by category such as biography and autobiography history poetry and fiction

Readings from British authors, selected and arranged by J.A. Jennings John Andrew Jennings, 1887 House & Garden, 1995 The Irish Monthly, 1912 Making Ireland Irish Eric G. E. Zuelow, 2009-03-01 From the dark shadow of civil war to the pastel painted towns of today Making Ireland Irish provides a sweeping account of the evolution of the Irish tourist industry over the twentieth century Drawing on an extensive array of previously untapped or underused sources Eric G E Zuelow examines how a small group of tourism advocates inspired by tourist development movements in countries such as France and Spain worked tirelessly to convince their Irish compatriots that tourism was the secret to Ireland's success Over time tourism went from being a national joke to a national interest Men and women from across Irish society joined in eager to help shape their country and culture for visitors eyes The result was Ireland as it is depicted today a land of blue skies smiling faces pastel towns natural beauty ancient history and timeless traditions With lucid prose and vivid detail Zuelow explains how careful planning transformed Irish towns and villages from grey and unattractive to bright and inviting sanitized Irish history to avoid offending Ireland's largest tourist market the English and supplanted traditional rural fairs revolving around muddy animals and featuring sexually suggestive ceremonies with new family friendly festivals and events filling today's tourist calendar By challenging existing notions that the Irish tourist product is either timeless or the consequence of colonialism Zuelow demonstrates that the development of tourist imagery and Irish national identity was not the result of a handful of elites or a postcolonial legacy but rather the product of an extended discussion that ultimately involved a broad cross section of society both inside and outside Ireland Tourism he argues played a vital role in making Ireland Irish

Readings from American authors, humorous and pathetic, selected and arranged by J.A. Jennings John Andrew Jennings, 1884 Catalogue of the Printed Books in the Library of the Faculty of Advocates ... Faculty of Advocates (Scotland). Library, 1877 Ireland William Laffan, Christopher P. Monkhouse, Leslie Fitzpatrick, 2015-01-01 A sweeping survey of the arts of Ireland spanning 150 years and an astonishing range of artists and media This groundbreaking book captures a period in Ireland's history when countless foreign architects, artisans, and artists worked side by side with their native counterparts. Nearly all of the works within this remarkable volume, many of them never published before, have been drawn from North American collections. This catalogue accompanies the first exhibition to celebrate the Irish as artists, collectors, and patrons over 150 years of Ireland's sometimes turbulent history. Featuring the work of a wide range of artists, known and unknown, and a diverse array of media, the catalogue also includes an impressive assembly of essays by a pre-eminent group of international experts working on the art and cultural history of Ireland. Major essays discuss the subjects of the Irish landscape and tourism, Irish country houses, and Dublin's role as a center of culture and commerce. Also included are numerous shorter essays covering a full spectrum of topics and artworks, including bookbinding, ceramics, furniture, glass, mezzotints, miniatures, musical instruments, pastels, silver, and textiles.
