Duckfoot A Novel:

Duckfoot William Scoales, 1971 Approaches to the African Novel Charles E. Nnolim, 2010 This Third Edition of Approaches to the African Novel is a child of necessity Because of the unfortunate death of the publisher of Saros International who issued the First Edition and high demand this third enlarged edition has become imperative Three new essays all previously published are added two expectedly on Achebe the father of the African novel and one on Mongop Beti s Mission to Kala which was partially anthologised in Contemporary Literary Criticism Volume 27 1984 Achebe s Things Fall Apart as an Igbo national epic has evoked a spate of reactions from critics of African literature especially the troika Chinweizu et al in Toward the Decolonization of African Literature It was also anthologised in Modern Black Literature edited by S Okechukwu Menu 1971 The essay on Arrow of God whose structure and meaning has been largely avoided by other critics is included here for further airing For gender balance as the previous volume contained no essays on women writers an essay on Flora Nwapa has been added Since the novels discussed in this volume exclusively are on the African literature south of the Sahara the last essay on Peter Abrahams comes in to round out this collection of essays with a study of a south African writer for geographical balance American Book Publishing Record ,1977-03-31 Here s quick access to more than 490 000 titles published from 1970 to 1984 arranged in Dewey sequence with sections for Adult and Juvenile Fiction Author and Title indexes are included and a Subject Guide correlates primary subjects with Dewey and LC classification numbers These cumulative records are available in three separate sets The Fourth Ghost Robert H. Brinkmeyer, Jr., 2009-01-01 In the 1949 classic Killers of the Dream Lillian Smith described three racial ghosts haunting the mind of the white South the black woman with whom the white man often had sexual relations the rejected child from a mixed race coupling and the black mammy whom the white southern child first loves but then must reject In this groundbreaking work Robert H Brinkmeyer Jr extends Smith s work by adding a fourth ghost lurking in the psyche of the white South the specter of European Fascism He explores how southern writers of the 1930s and 1940s responded to Fascism and most tellingly to the suggestion that the racial politics of Nazi Germany had a special problematic relevance to the South and its segregated social system As Brinkmeyer shows nearly all white southern writers in these decades felt impelled to deal with this specter and with the implications for southern identity of the issues raised by Nazism and Fascism Their responses varied widely ranging from repression and denial to the repulsion of self recognition With penetrating insight Brinkmeyer examines the work of writers who contemplated the connection between the authoritarianism and racial politics of Nazi Germany and southern culture He shows how white southern writers both those writing cultural criticism and those writing imaginative literature turned to Fascist Europe for images analogies and metaphors for representing and understanding the conflict between traditional and modern cultures that they were witnessing in Dixie Brinkmeyer considers the works of a wide range of authors of varying political stripes the Nashville Agrarians W J Cash Lillian Smith William

Alexander Percy Thomas Wolfe William Faulkner Katherine Anne Porter Carson McCullers Robert Penn Warren and Lillian Hellman He argues persuasively that by engaging in their works the vital contemporary debates about totalitarianism and democracy these writers reconfigured their understanding not only of the South but also of themselves as southerners and of the nature and significance of their art The magnum opus of a distinguished scholar The Fourth Ghost offers a stunning reassessment of the cultural and political orientation of southern literature by examining a major and heretofore unexplored influence on its development The Papers of Thomas Jefferson: Retirement Series, Volume 11 Thomas Jefferson, 2018-06-05 The 584 documents in this volume cover the period from 19 January to 31 August 1817 during which Jefferson devotes much time and energy to founding Central College the predecessor of the University of Virginia In May 1817 at its first official meeting the college's Board of Visitors authorizes land purchases and a subscription campaign that eventually raises more than 44 000 Jefferson also prepares a legal brief for his chancery suit against the directors of the Rivanna Company After years of disagreements and failed negotiations he composes and revises a legal statement of his claim to the property in dispute Although the complaint is submitted to the court in May 1817 the case is not settled until December 1819 In March 1817 Jefferson's friend James Monroe begins his first term as president During the summer Jefferson learns of the death of two friends Madame de Sta l Holstein and Pierre Samuel Du Pont de Nemours Late in the summer he visits Natural Bridge with two of his granddaughters Jefferson continues to purchase books from Europe with the assistance of George Ticknor and Stephen Cathalan helps him restock his wine cellar and pantry Even though Jefferson answers his voluminous correspondence selectively he still chafes under the burden Black-Jewish Relations in African American and Jewish American Fiction Adam Meyer, 2002 Including 410 entries drawn from over 100 years of novels short stories plays and children's and young adult literature this bibliography demonstrates both the extent and the richness of the fiction which has been written about Black Jewish relations in America thus enhancing our view of American ethnic literature as a whole The Publishers Weekly, 1971 Donovan, a novel, by Edna Lyall Ada Ellen Bayly, 1882 Modern Fiction Studies, 1960 Donovan: a Modern Englishman. theories of women's speech voice and self realization to illuminate Robert Penn Warren's awareness of gender differences in language and psychological development This book's joint focus on dialogue contents and motivation of women characters reveals Warren's understanding of and sensitivity to women's ways of speaking and self actualizing By reinterpreting these works in the context of postmodernism and feminist criticism this study argues for a reassessment of Warren's fiction along more contemporary lines
