Coffino, 2017-07-25 In basketball as in most sports a large part of a coach's responsibility is to prepare his or her team for games Yet little time in practice is typically devoted to readying the players and coaches for specific game situations For instance what are the various ways to use dead ball moments to maximum advantage What adjustments should be made to launch a comeback in particular circumstances When is it favorable to purposefully miss a foul shot In Odds On Basketball Coaching Crafting High Percentage Strategies for Game Situations Michael J Coffino presents an innovative system for coaches to prepare for specific game scenarios Coffino challenges coaches to think differently about what they emphasize in practice placing greater value on preparing for recurring game situations crafting strategies by assessing the odds and creating a culture that elevates how players think about the game Each chapter begins with an actual game scenario that illustrates the chapter's content and includes discussions of notable college and professional basketball games in order to demonstrate specific points Odds On Basketball Coaching provides a framework for making game decisions beyond instincts and habits It is intended more than anything to stimulate coaches and players to think comprehensively and realistically about how to approach games and practices

Rebound! David Borges,2015-03-03 In September 2012 legendary University of Connecticut men s basketball coach Jim Calhoun who had won three national championships the last in 2011 abruptly retired His handpicked replacement was Kevin Ollie a former UConn player and longtime NBA journeyman who had returned two years earlier to be Calhoun s assistant Ollie was widely praised as a basketball savant and respected by virtually everyone who knew him But he had no head coaching experience at any level before taking the UConn job He was also inheriting a mess Due to past academic problems UConn was barred from postseason play in 2013 and largely because of this several top players left the program either for the NBA draft or for other schools On top of that were the uncertainties of a greatly changed conference as well as difficulties on the recruiting trail Despite it all a dedicated core of players stayed and won twenty hard fought games even with no tournament chances to hope for The following season expectations for the team were modest and the odds of a championship were slim to none But with the tournament ban lifted a talented group of players led by Shabazz Napier emerged and went on to upset Michigan State to advance to the Final Four causing millions of college hoops fans across the country to rip up their carefully constructed brackets When they beat preseason no 1 Kentucky with its Fab 5 NBA bound starters and celebrity coach John Calipari to win the 2014 title theirs became one of the great comeback stories in all of sports a rags to riches triumph for a storied program and its new head coach
