Durga's Mosque Stephen Headley,2004 Stephen Headley s new book explores contemporary religious change in the Surakarta region of Central Java In his analysis of the Durga ritual complex the author sheds light on one of the most unusual court traditions to have survived in an era of deepening Islamisation Durga's Mosque Stephen C Headley,2003-08-01 For two decades now Stephen C Headley has been one of the most original and systematic ethnographers of Javanese religion and cultural history No one in contemporary Javanese ethnography has combed through the annals of nineteenth and twentieth century scholarship with as careful an eye for the variety of Javanese traditions None combines this historical ethnography with as careful and unusual body of contemporary ethnography Headley s new book brings these long developed skills to bear on contemporary religious change in the Surakarta region of Central Java In his analysis of the Durga ritual complex Headley sheds light on one of the most unusual court traditions to have survived in an era of deepening Islamization Headley s analysis of this ritual complex and its implications for our understanding of popular Javanese religion deserves to be read by all serious students of Java as well as anyone interested in religion in Indonesia However Headley moves well beyond this unusual ritual complex to take us through the twists and turns of religious culture and politics in what is one of the richest but also most troubled of cultural regions in Java The result is a rich multi layered and fascinating study one that changes forever our understanding of Javanese tradition in a Java becoming Islamic Robert Hefner Institute on Religion and World Affairs Boston University Netizenship, Activism and Online Community Transformation in Indonesia Ario Seto,2017-09-12 Focusing on the concept of prudence as ethical groundwork for digital practices and activism this book considers digital media expediency and populism as conflicting required experiences that lead digital citizens to discover activism It highlights the importance of digital citizens experience of being in the digital sphere and encourages the reader to look at the dynamics of online movement as a part of a community s search for significance between the online and offline realms of activism Based on ethnographic research about the largest Indonesian online community Kaskus this book uses Indonesian digital citizenship as an example of online activism in a post authoritarian state with media viewed as a tool for democratic advancement and a catalyst for social movements among activists students and citizens both in Indonesia and further afield Set at the intersection of media anthropology sociology Asian studies and Citizenship studies this book considers the shape and future of digital democracy in post authoritarian state Historical Mosques in Indonesia and the Malay World Bagoes Wiryomartono,2023-07-23 The book is an interdisciplinary study on the relationship between Muslims and their mosques in Indonesia and Malaysia It presents selected historic mosques that demonstrate local interpretations and sociocultural assimilation as well as a geographical syncretism of Islam in local societies The book unveils the contestations synchronizations assimilations and integrations of local and foreign elements into the contextual architecture and sociologically institutionalized system that is the mosque the Islamic place of worship The author excavates the mosque's historical origins and traces the iconic elements, features, and designs from their earliest historical settings and contexts. He then identifies, analyzes, and theorizes the outcomes of the interaction between Islam and local traditions through Malaysian and Indonesian case studies. The book proposes that Islam at its philosophical level can be culturally acceptable anywhere because it contains universal virtues of humanity for equality, fraternity, and social justice. The book unfolds how a dialectical contestation and acculturation of Dutch colonialism, Middle Eastern elements of culture, and local customs and traditions might then come into dialogue peacefully. Finally, the book considers the relationship between Malay and Indonesian architecture within their respective political cultures, shedding light on Islam and its practice within rich multicultural contexts. Relevant to students and researchers in Islamic studies, architecture, and Southeast Asian studies, more broadly, the book uncovers the issues, constraints, and opportunities relating to the meaning of mosques for Muslims in Malaysia and Indonesia.

Cambodia's Muslims and the Malay World Philipp Bruckmayr, 2019-03-25 In this monograph, Philipp Bruckmayr examines the development of Cambodia's Muslim minority from the mid-19th to the 21st century. During this period, Cambodia's Cham and Chvea Muslims established strong relationships with Malay centers of Islamic learning in Patani, Kelantan, and Mecca. During the 1970s to the early 1990s, these longstanding relationships came to a sudden halt due to civil war and the systematic Khmer Rouge repression. Since the 1990s, ties to the Malay world have been revived, and new Islamic currents, including Salafism and Tablighism, have left their mark on contemporary Cambodian Islam. Bruckmayr traces how these dynamics resulted, inter alia, in a history of local Islamic factionalism, culminating in the eventual state recognition of two separate Islamic congregations in the late 1990s.

The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 5, The Islamic World in the Age of Western Dominance Francis Robinson, 2010-11-04 Volume 5 of The New Cambridge History of Islam examines the history of Muslim societies from 1800 to the present. Francis Robinson, a leading historian of Islam, has brought together a team of scholars with a broad range of expertise to explore how Muslims responded to the challenges of Western conquest and domination across the last two hundred years. As their articles reveal, the social, economic, political, and historical circumstances which influenced these responses have, in many different parts of the world, empowered Muslim societies and encouraged transformation and religious revival. The volume offers a fascinating glimpse into the local dimensions of that revival and how regional connections have been forged. Synthesizing the academic research of the past thirty years, as well as offering substantial guidance for further study, this book is the starting point for all those who wish to have a serious understanding of modern Muslim societies.

Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair, 2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus, the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World. The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011. This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in

Polarizing Javanese Society M. C. Ricklefs, 2007-10-17 In the course of the nineteenth century colonial rule population pressure and Islamic reform all acted to undermine this mystic synthesis Pious Muslims became divided amongst adherents of that synthesis reformers who demanded a more orthodox way of life reforming Sufis and those who believed in messianic ideas A new category of Javanese emerged people who resisted Islamic reform and began to attenuate their Islamic identity This group became known as abangan nominal Muslims and they constituted a majority of the population For the first time a minority of Javanese converted to Christianity The priyayi elite Java's aristocracy meanwhile embraced the forms of modernity represented by their European rulers and the wider advances of modern scientific learning
