repellant in his nature He an impotent werewolf no longer able to hunt confronts the terror of obsolescence What do I even look like now he wonders when the full moon draws out the wolf inside me The specter of old age also haunts the semiautobiographical story A Walk in the Old City Brain matter cascades and spiders loom as a psychoanalyst self assured in his practice wanders along empty streets reality warping into the irrational with the insouciance of a dream In the final story a reinterpretation of Jean Ferry s The Tiger in Vogue this dreamscape gives way to the ominous environs of Berlin in the 1920s When a peaceful evening at the music hall is interrupted by a garish surprise act only the protagonist seems to notice Yet he too is transfixed by the performance watching as a little man with a moustache pale skin and tired eyes wills a tiger into submission With its sharp lines and vibrant blues and oranges the artwork recalls Edvard Munch s anguished The Scream likewise capturing the moment the dread before disaster As fluid as Japanese manga and rife with unsettling imagery Werewolf at Dusk is a testament to the singular dark genius of David Small
