

ENCOUNTERS cultural histories

Series editors:
Roger Coote
Harriet Ritvo
Carolyn Steedman
Bertrand Taithe

Over the past few decades cultural history has become the discipline of encounters. Beyond the issues raised by the linguistic turn, the work of theorists such as Norbert Elias, Pierre Bourdieu, Michel Foucault or Jacques Derrida has contributed to the emergence of cultural history as a forum for bold and creative exchange. This series responds to place encounters – human, intellectual and disciplinary – at the heart of historical thinking. Encounters will include short, innovative and theoretically informed books from all fields of history. The series will provide an arena for exploring new and reassessed historical subjects, stimulating perceptions and re-perceptions of the past, and methodological challenges and innovations; it will publish at history's cutting edge. The Encounters series will demonstrate that history is the hidden narrative of modernity.

Dust The Archive And Cultural History:

Dust Carolyn Steedman, 2001 In this witty engaging and challenging book Carolyn Steedman has produced a highly original and sometimes irreverent investigation into the development of modern history writing Dust is about the practice and writing of history Dust considers the immutable stubborn set of beliefs about the material world past and present inherited from the nineteenth century with which modern history writing attempts to grapple Drawing on over five years worth of her own published and unpublished writing the author has produced a sustained argument about the way in which history writing belongs to the currents of thought shaping the modern world Steedman begins by looking at the attention paid to the archive by those working in the humanities and social sciences in recent years what has become known as the practice of archiving By definition the archive is the repository of that which will not go away and the book goes on to suggest that just like dust the matter of history can never go away or be erased Historians who want to think about what it is they do will find this work enlightening and this book is essential reading for all undergraduates and postgraduates studying historiography and history and theory

Dust Carolyn Steedman, 2002 Transformation of Archives and Heritage Education in Post-apartheid South Africa Geraldine Frieslaar, Olusegun Morakinyo, 2023-06-10 Although there have been significant strides to transform the demographics of archive and museum personnel develop new museums and heritage institutions and heritage training initiatives in post apartheid South Africa the Eurocentric model of the archive museum and heritage sector has largely remained intact Despite the euphoria around the transformation of heritage in the beginnings of post apartheid South Africa it can be argued that the transformation of heritage institutions has been superficial and cosmetic with the ideological foundation of the colonial archive and museum as well as Eurocentric modalities of heritage education remaining solid largely unmoved and under continuing challenge This is the thrust of this book which reflects on the transformation of archives and museum and heritage education in South Africa and argues for meaningful transformation of the sector through a decolonisation from its Eurocentric mooring

Intersectional Encounters in the Nineteenth-Century Archive Rachel Bryant Davies, Erin Johnson-Williams, 2022-08-11 Rachel Bryant Davies and Erin Johnson Williams lead a cast of renowned scholars to initiate an interdisciplinary conversation about the mechanisms of power that have shaped the nineteenth century archive to ask What is a nineteenth century archive broadly defined This landmark collection of essays will broach critical and topical questions about how the complex discourses of power involved in constructions of the nineteenth century archive have impacted and continue to impact constructions of knowledge across disciplinary boundaries and beyond academic confines The essays written from a range of disciplinary perspectives grapple with urgent problems of how to deal with potentially sensitive nineteenth century archival items both within academic scholarship and in present day public facing institutions which often reflect erotic colonial and imperial racist sexist violent or elitist ideologies Each contribution grapples with these questions from a range of perspectives Musicology Classics English History Visual Culture and Museums and Archives The result is far reaching historical excavation of archival experiences

Cultural Performance Kevin Landis, Suzanne Macaulay, 2017-09-16 This engaging text introduces the burgeoning and interdisciplinary field of cultural performance offering ethnographic approaches to performance as well as looking at the aesthetics of experience and performance theory Examining cultural performance from anthropological geographical and corporeal standpoints this book offers many examples of the ways in which performance art and entertainment utilize cultural methods to deepen and enrich the practice Featuring case studies from a rich cross section of academics chapters explore performances from regions as far flung as Bhutan Ethiopia Ghana Indonesia Ireland New Zealand and the USA With cultural performances as varied as Catholic rituals Maori ceremonies Monster Truck rallies musicals theatre and singing performances this fascinating text compares performance as art and performance as cultural expression Core reading for introductory and interdisciplinary modules on performance this is also an ideal text for upper undergraduate and postgraduate students of performance visual arts cultural studies or ethnography

The Forms of Renaissance Thought Leonard Barkan, Bradin Cormack, Sean Keilen, 2009-01-15 The boundaries separating Literary Studies from other kinds of humanistic inquiry are more permeable now than at any moment since the Enlightenment when disciplinary categories began to acquire their modern definition The Forms of Renaissance Thought celebrates scholarship at a number of these frontiers The contributors address works of the European Renaissance as they relate both to the textured world of their origins and to a modern scholarly culture that turns to the early moderns for methodological provocation and renewal In this way the volume charts the most important developments in the field since the turn towards cultural and ideological features of the Renaissance imagination New Perspectives on Turkey ,2006 Publications of the Modern Language Association of America ,2004 Performance in America David Román,2005-11-23 Argues for the centrality of theater and performance in the American national imaginary Program of the Annual Meeting - American Historical Association American Historical Association,2003 Some programs include also the programs of societies meeting concurrently with the association
