Still the Moving World Jordan Leondopoulos, 1991 Nearly three quarters of a century of criticism much of it misguided sometimes even wrong headed has obscured a crucial facet of D W Griffith's accomplishment in Intolerance This original and lucid study argues that Intolerance is like Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness a proto modernist text Both works exhibit an ahistoric consciousness of disorder destruction and skepticism and reflect to different degrees the aesthetic experimentalism of the early 20th century Through a close analysis of Griffith's film and its manifold affinities with Conrad's tale and more cursorily with the works of other exponents of modernism in the traditional arts the author demonstrates that contrary to the conventional criticisms of Intolerance as a cluttered disjointed text the film's eccentric form and unruliness are among the vital components of its meaning and modernity
