Cutting a Figure Richard J. Powell,2008 Examining portraits of black people over the past two centuries Cutting a Figure argues that these images should be viewed as a distinct category of portraiture that differs significantly from depictions of people with other racial and ethnic backgrounds The difference Richard Powell contends lies in the social capital that stems directly from the black subject s power to subvert dominant racist representations by evincing such traits as self composure self adornment and self imagining Powell forcefully supports this argument with evidence drawn from a survey of nineteenth century portraits in depth case studies of the postwar fashion model Donyale Luna and the contemporary portraitist Barkley L Hendricks and insightful analyses of images created since the late 1970s Along the way he discusses major artists such as Fr d ric Bazille John Singer Sargent James Van Der Zee and David Hammons alongside such overlooked producers of black visual culture as the Tonka and Nike corporations Combining previously unpublished images with scrupulous archival research Cutting a Figure illuminates the ideological nature of the genre and the centrality of race and cultural identity in understanding modern and contemporary portraiture

Inventing Marcel Duchamp Janine A. Mileaf,Francis M. Naumann,Michael R. Taylor,2009-04-10 An old genre is given a new look as portraits and self portraits of Marcel Duchamp invent and cover up as much as they reveal and portray One of the most influential artists of the twentieth century Marcel Duchamp 1887 1968 was a master of self invention who carefully regulated the image he projected through self portraiture and through his collaboration with those who portrayed him During his long career Duchamp recast accepted modes for assembling and describing identity indelibly altering the terrain of portraiture This groundbreaking book which accompanies a major exhibition at the Smithsonian Institution s National Portrait Gallery demonstrates the ways in which Duchamp willfully manipulated the techniques of portraiture both to secure his reputation as an iconoclast and to establish himself as a major figure in the art world Although scholars have explored Duchamp s use of aliases little attention has been paid to how this work played into and against existing portrait conventions Nor has any study yet compared these explicitly self constructed projects with the large body of portraits of Duchamp by others Inventing Marcel Duchamp showcases approximately one hundred never before assembled portraits and self portraits of Duchamp The broadly defined self portraits and self representations include the famous autobiographical suitcase Bo te en Valise and Self Portrait in Profile a torn silhouette that became very influential for future generations of artists The portraits by other artists include works by

Duchamp's contemporaries Man Ray Alfred Stieglitz Francis Picabia Beatrice Wood and Florine Stettheimer as well as portraits by more recent generations of artists including Andy Warhol Jasper Johns Sturtevant Yasumasa Morimura David Hammons and Douglas Gordon Since the mid twentieth century as abstraction assumed a position of dominance in fine art portraiture has been often derided as an art form the images and essays in Inventing Marcel Duchamp counter this and invite us to rethink the role of portraiture in modern and contemporary art

The Ferus Gallery Kristine McKenna, 2009 In 1950s California and especially in Los Angeles there existed few venues for contemporary art To a whole generation of California artists this presented a freedom since the absence of a context for their work meant that they could coin their own and in uncommonly interesting ways The careers of Ed Ruscha Wallace Berman and Ed Kienholz all begin with this absence Ruscha turned to books as a means of dissemination Berman pioneered mail art through his magazine Semina and in March 1957 Ed Kienholz in collaboration with curator Walter Hopps co founded one of California's greatest historical galleries Ferus Within months of opening Ferus which is Latin for wild gained notoriety when the Hollywood vice squad raided Berman's first and in his lifetime last solo exhibition following a complaint about lewd material Shows by Kienholz and Jay DeFeo followed but 1962 was Ferus annus mirabilis with solo shows by Bruce Conner and Joseph Cornell and the first solo shows of Roy Lichtenstein and Andy Warhol on the west coast The following year Ferus also hosted Ed Ruscha's first solo exhibition After Kienholz and Hopps parted ways Hopps went on to mount the first American Duchamp retrospective at the Pasadena Art Museum the reins were handed to Irving Blum who got Ferus out of the red and ran the gallery until its closure in 1966 A Place to Begin is an illustrated oral history of this heroic enterprise With 62 new interviews with Ferus artists and more than 300 photographs most previously unpublished it retrieves a lost chapter of twentieth century American art Edited by Kristine McKenna noted expert and co editor of the critically acclaimed Semina Culture

Art in America Frank Jewett Mather, Frederic Fairchild Sherman, 2005-08 Type at Work Andreu Balius, 2003 Giving a detailed and comprehensive survey of the use of typography in contemporary editorial design of books magazines newspapers catalogues reports and brochures this work includes work by some of the most pre eminent and innovative international typographic designers working today

Andy Warhol Andy Warhol, Heiner Bastian, 2001 Published to accompany a major European retrospective this catalogue presents Warhol as the most significant chronicler of the second half of the 20th century
