Narratives of Delusion in the Political Practice of the Labour Left 1931-1945 Roger Spalding, 2018-04-18 This book sets out a challenging re-interpretation of the politics of Labour's left wing It shows how the Left developed a range of simplistic self-sustaining narratives rather than supported analyses to guide its actions in the aftermath of the political crisis of 1931 This approach it is argued persisted down to the opening years of the present century its employment in part explaining the decline of the pre-Corbyn Left The narratives developed by the Left reflected a belief in the existence of a working class waiting to be led in a radical direction The leading figures of the Left often had limited direct contact with working people but within their narratives the responses of their target audience were predictable and automatic The Left created an idealised working class that behaved as the Left wished In addition the book questions the popular view often enhanced by biographers of many of these Labour Left leaders
