Past Performance Roger Bechtel, 2007 In this age of overweening global capital and omnipresent electronic media many critics have diagnosed Western culture as suffering from a kind of historical obliviousness a mass inability to situate our lived experience within the temporal flow of past present and future that is history Within this historically bankrupt culture representations of history in whatever medium cinema television print most often become mere fashion the quotation of past styles devoid of historical gravitas Against this Past Performance American Theatre and the Historical Imagination argues that many contemporary American theatre and performance artists are not only developing innovative strategies for staging history but helping us reimagine our relationship with the past American Angels Peter Gardella,2007 Explores the rich history of angels in America from Spanish colonialism and Puritan culture to modern incarnations found on TV in movies in comic books and on bumper stickers Finds that Americans have constructed the useful angel as a servant of man rather than an agent of God Minnesota Law Review ,2007-11 Angels in America Tony Kushner,2008-11-03 Dramatizes the effects of AIDS on the United States through the experiences of lawyer Roy Cohn a Mormon couple and a young man called Prior Walter The Name and Nature of Tragicomedy Verna A. Foster,2004 Focusing on European tragicomedy from the early modern period to the theatre of the absurd Verna Foster here argues for the independence of tragicomedy as a genre that perceives and communicates human experience differently from the various forms of tragedy comedy and the drame serious drama that is neither comic nor tragic Foster posits that in the sense of the dramaturgical and emotional fusion of tragic and comic elements to create a distinguishable new genre tragicomedy has emerged only twice in the history of drama She argues that tragicomedy first emerged and was controversial in the Renaissance and that it has in modern times replaced tragedy itself as the most serious and moving of all dramatic genres In the first section of the book the author analyzes the name tragicomedy and the genre s problems of identity then goes on to explore early modern tragicomedies by Shakespeare Beaumont and Fletcher and Massinger A transitional chapter addresses cognate genres The final section of the book focuses on modern tragicomedies by Ibsen Chekhov Synge O Casey Williams Ionesco Beckett and Pinter By exploring dramaturgical similarities between early modern and modern tragicomedies Foster demonstrates the persistence of tragicomedy s generic markers and provides a more precise conceptual framework for the genre than has so far been available Theatre and Globalization Patrick Lonergan,2009-01-15 WINNER OF THE 2008 THEATRE BOOK PRIZE Globalization is transforming theatre everywhere As writers seek to exploit new opportunities to produce their work internationally audiences are seeing the world and the stage differently And as national borders became more fluid the barriers between economics and culture are also becoming weaker In this groundbreaking study Patrick Lonergan explores these developments placing them in the context of the transformation of Ireland the most globalized country in the world since the early 1990s Drawing on archival material that has never before been published this study sheds new light on the culture of Celtic Tiger Ireland focusing on such writers as Brian Friel Sean O Casey Marie Jones Martin McDonagh Marina Carr and Conor McPherson In doing so it shows how globalization poses difficult questions for authors and audiences and reveals how we can begin to come to terms with these new developments Contemporary Drama in English ,1996 Theater Week ,1996 Critical Survey of Drama: Victor Hugo - John Marston Carl Edmund Rollyson, Frank Northen Magill,2003 Combines updates and expands two earlier Salem Press reference sets Critical survey of drama Rev ed

English language series published in 1994 and Critical survey of drama Foreign language series published in 1986 This new 8 vol set contains 602 essays of which 538 discuss individual dramatists and 64 cover broad overview topics The dramatist profiles contain more than 310 photographs and drawings Thornton Wilder Martin Joseph Blank, Dalma Hunyadi Brunauer, David Garrett Izzo, 1999
