Anima An Anatomy Of A Personified Notion:

Anima James Hillman, 1985 With 439 excerpts from the writings of C G Jung This excursion is intended to supplement the main literature on the anima Since that literature provides a goodly phenomenology of the experience of anima I shall look here more closely at the rather neglected phenomenology of the notion of anima Experience and notion affect each other reciprocally Not only do we derive our notions out of our experiences in accordance with the fantasy of empiricism but also our notions condition the nature of our experiences James Hillman Anima James Hillman, Carl Gustav Jung, 1985

Hero-ego in Search of Self Judy Anne White, 2004 In Hero Ego in Search of Self Judy Anne White offers a perceptive explanation for continued interest in the Anglo Saxon poem Beowulf Building upon the earlier work of Jeffery Helterman and John Miles Foley she argues that the sum of all confrontations between hero and monster in Beowulf equals the process of individual psychological development identified by Carl Jung as individuation Dr White's study proposes that the hero's struggle is the universal struggle towards self knowledge and that Beowulf thus resonates for the contemporary reader as it did for the poet's original audience The Routledge International Handbook of Jungian Film Studies Luke Hockley, 2019-12-09 Winner of the IAJS award for best edited book of 2018 The Routledge International Handbook of Jungian Film Studies weaves together the various strands of Jungian film theory revealing a coherent theoretical position underpinning this exciting recent area of research while also exploring and suggesting new directions for further study The book maps the current state of debates within Jungian orientated film studies and sets them within a more expansive academic landscape Taken as a whole the collection shows how different Jungian approaches can inform and interact with a broad range of disciplines including literature digital media studies clinical debates and concerns The book also explores the life of film outside cinema what is sometimes termed post cinema offering a series of articles exploring Jungian approaches to cinema and social media computer games mobile screens and on line communities The Routledge International Handbook of Jungian Film Studies represents an essential resource for students and researchers interested in Jungian approaches to film It will also appeal to those interested in film theory more widely and in the application of Jung's ideas to contemporary and popular culture Reclaiming Spirituality Diarmuid Ó Murchú, 1998 In this thought provoking and rambunctious follow up to Quantum Theology English priest and social psychologist Diarmuid O Murchu celebrates the spiritual renaissance of our time as an alternative to religious fanaticism and religious indifference He sees this phenomenon as part of the evolving spiritual story of humankind stretching back 70 000 years The spirituality that is appealing to seekers today embodies global inclusive co operative egalitarian and feminine values O Murchu outlines its linkage of the new cosmology with a respect for the natural world through the spirituality of native peoples He points out its embrace of pre patriarchal values of relatedness passion feeling imagination and justice Two other accents of this new paradigm are its emphasis upon the erotic power of spirituality and its reappropriation of the shadow in all its diverse dimensions Only time will tell what new permutations this global spirituality will take O Murchu has done a fine job mapping out its contemporary lineaments Cinematic Projections Luke Hockley,2001 An introduction to the world of postJungian film studies this book redresses the dominance of Freudian theories of cinema and guides individuals through the intricacies of Jungian thought In so doing it provides the basis on which to construct a contemporary theory of cinema Drawing on research into detective films and the myths of detection Hockley weaves together psychological analysis with textual interpretation The resulting hypothesis suggests that watching films is an intensely personal experience in which viewers according to individual needs and desires project and identify with films and their characters

Haruki Murakami and the Search for Self-Therapy Jonathan Dil,2022-02-24 Haruki Murakami a global literary phenomenon has said that he started writing fiction as a means of self therapy What he has not discussed as much is what he needed self therapy for This book argues that by understanding more about why Murakami writes and by linking this with the question of how he writes readers can better understand what he writes Murakami s fiction in other words can be read as a search for self therapy In five chapters which explore Murakami s fourteen novels to date this book argues that there are four prominent therapeutic threads woven through Murakami s fiction that can be traced back to his personal traumas most notably Murakami s falling out with his late father and the death of a former girlfriend and which have also transcended them in significant ways as they have been transformed into literary fiction The first thread looks at the way melancholia must be worked through for mourning to occur and healing to happen the second thread looks at how symbolic acts of sacrifice can help to heal intergenerational trauma the third thread looks at the way people with avoidant attachment styles can begin to open themselves up to love again the fourth thread looks at how individuation can manifest as a response to nihilism Meticulously researched and written with sensitivity the result is a sophisticated exploration of Murakami s published novels as an evolving therapeutic project that will be of great value to all scholars of Japanese literature and culture

Fathers, Sons, and Daughters Charles Sohngew Scull,1992 This book is a panoramic exploration of fathers and fathering that will appeal to millions of men and women It offers dozens of insightful and touching essays and stories that provide a new context for understanding the often complex relationships between fathers and their children

Mis/takes Terrie Waddell,2012-09-10 Mis takes departs from the bulk of screen discourse by applying Jungian and Post Jungian ideas on unconscious processes to popular film and television This perspective offers a rich insight into the way that various myths infiltrate popular culture By examining the function of psychological motifs and symbols in cinema and television Terrie Waddell opens up another way of thinking about how identity can be constructed and disrupted Mulholland Drive Memento The Others The X Files Twin Peaks The Sopranos Spider Intimacy and Absolutely Fabulous all lend themselves to this approach The close analysis of these films programs are guided by a number of core archetypes from trickster and Self to incest and the grotesque The book s four parts reflect these dominant patterns Jung trickster and the screen Mistaken identities self deception and the undead Redeemers bad dads and matricide Excesses of the sad and the sassy Mis takes gives readers a chance to engage with screen material in an original and subversive way This study will be of great interest to Jungian analysts and students of film cultural studies media gender studies and analytical psychology

Screening the Dark Side of Love Karen A. Ritzenhoff, Karen Randell, 2012-10-15 How can love be understood globally as a problematic transgression rather than the narrative of happy endings that Hollywood has offered The contributors utilize varying methodologies of textual analysis psychoanalytic models and cultural critique and engage with a broad range of films to explore issues of gender identity and spectatorship

Don Juan Nigel Wood, 1993

Femininity and Shame Barbara L. Eurich-Rascoe, Hendrika Vande Kemp, 1997-02-20 Femininity is a source of shame for some men and women Scholarship and therapeutic practice have not reckoned with femininity of its shamefulness in helpful healing ways Thus women and men continue to hide their feminine selves This book asserts the positive worth and power of femininity for men and women men s and women s need for validation of their femininity and the need to create child rearing and therapeutic practices that achieve incorporation of femininity in men s conscious self understanding

Jung, Freud, and Hillman Robert H. Davis, 2003-09-30 This volume shows how the theoretical ideas of three famed psychologists evolved from the scientific base envisioned by Freud into different belief systems based on clinical observations by their practitioners Davis traces ideas and influences that provided the context in which depth psychology evolved Following in the footsteps of great philosophers like Nietzsche and Schopenhauer Jung and Freud helped set the stage for the postmodern world with their emphasis on the role in human psychology of the irrational unconscious instinctual fantasy and mythology Unlike Freud and Jung who clung tenaciously to the belief that they were scientists creating universal theories of human behavior Hillman does not share that illusion Hillman finds his inspiration in Renaissance philosophers and romantic poets Placing the three men s work in context with a history of ideas in their respective periods Davis aims to present an academic and objective view of the depth psychologists Included are some of the familial social and cultural factors that influenced thinking by Freud Jung and Hillman
