Ark For The Uncalled:

Literary Exorcisms of Stalinism Margaret Ziolkowski,1998 A study of the cultural implications of portraits of Stalin and his era since his death in 1953 This work explores the cultural implications of prominent images in Russian thought and literature devoted to the Stalin era since the dictator s death in 1953 Author of the works discussed include some of the most important Russian writers of the past four decades Solzhenitsyn Vasilii Grossman Vladimir Voinovich Anatolii Rybackov among others In the Image of God Judith S. Antonelli,1997-02-01 In the Image of God A Feminist Commentary on the Torah is a unique blend of traditional Judaism and radical feminism and is a groundbreaking commentary on the Bible the central document of Jewish life Using classical Jewish sources as well as supplementary material from history anthropology sociology psychology ancient religion and feminist theory Judith Antonelli has examined in detail every woman and every issue pertaining to women in the Torah parshah by parshah The Torah is divided into fifty four portions each portion or parshah is read in the synagogue on the Sabbath combining a few to make a yearly cycle of readings This book is modeled on that structure hence there are fifty chapters each of which corresponds to a parshah One may therefore read this book from beginning to end or use it as a study guide for the parshah of the week The reader will discover in these pages that the Torah is not the root of misogyny sexism or male supremacy Rather by looking at the Torah in the context in which it was given the pagan world of the ancient Near East it becomes clear that far from oppressing women the Torah actually improved the status of women as it existed in the surrounding societies Not only does this book refute the common feminist stereotype that Judaism is a patriarchal religion but it also refutes the sexism found in Judaism by exposing it as sociological rather than divine law Commentary ,1985 The Literary Review ,1985 Arkansas Reports Arkansas.
